BLADE SHARPENED

PETTIGREW PREPARING TO FLAY M'KINLEY.

TO GAIN POWER IN CUBA

IS CHARGED WITH BRIBERY OF CONGRESS.

IS LOADED WITH THE FACTS

WILL CITE RECORDS TO SHOW SURRENDER TO CONGRESS.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—The Times-Herald prints the following special from Washington by its correspondent, Walter Wellman:

President McKinley is managing and bribing congress. This is the charge which certain oppositon senators, led by the vitriolic Pettigrew, are to prefer against the administration in the closing days of the session.

Though the republicans now appear to be assured of success in carrying through their plans for legislation concerning Cuba and the Philippines, they are not to escape a terrible excoriation on account of the methods which they have employed.

Mr. Morgan, the remarkable old senator from Alabama, started the ball rolling. Turner, of Georgia, and others continued it tonight, and at the first opportunity Mr. Pettigrew will deliver himself of a most sensational speech.

HAS THE MATERIAL.

He will boldly charge, and unfortunately with more truth than poetry in his declarations, that the national legislature has virtually abdicated its functons. It is the executve who controls everything.

The house of representatives is notoriously under the domination of the president. All he has to do is to issue his orders through the speaker.

The house makes no pretense to independence. The popular branch of the national legislature is a mere puppet in the hands of the man who sits in the white house.

With the senate he has more trouble. That body keeps up a pretense of independence. But it is noteworthy that in every close struggle over matters vital to the success of administration policies it is the president and not the senate which carries off the victory.

CARRIES HIS POINTS.

The president sends for leaders, not confined altogether to his party side of the chamber. Consultations are held at the executive mansion. The course of the senate upon momentous affairs of state, involving both power and policy, are mapped out over the president's table.

It is to this branch of the subject that Mr. Pettigrew is expected to devote his attention. He intends to show, first, that all this important legislation concerning the Philippines and Cuba was purposely held over to the closing days of the session in order to stifle debate and inquiry for the express purpose of acting so hastily that public opinion should not have opportunity to express itself.

No good reason exists why the Philippine amendment should not have been pressed ere this when there was ample time for full debate. As it turns out, the Cuban policy of the administration, which the president, by adroit manipulation, has induced congress to accept, might have been brought forward a month ago as well as now.

SHOULD MOVE CAUTIOUSLY.

Nor is it seemly or dignified, in the opinion of these opposition critics, to attempt such great legislation as mere amendments to an appropriation bill, as if disposing of the fate of an island which aspires to nationhood were of equal importance with an appropriation for an addition to an army post.

According to these critics the whole course of the administration and its willing aids in the senate has been undignified and unworthy of a great nation.

This is not all, by any means. Mr. Pettigrew is prepared to show by reference to the records how it is that the administraton is liable to dictate to the upper branch of congress, how it is that democratic senators "lay down" and refuse to fight a policy which they have been denouncing with all their rorce and eloquence for many months.

WILL BE SENSATIONAL.

The revelations which Mr. Pettigrew is to make will be interestng, to say the least. He will charge that democratic senators have been bought up by means of appointments for their sons, relatives, friends and political retainers under the new army law.

He will say that the mystery of democratic willingness over Cuba is to be found in the many visits which democratic senators made to the white house while appointments under the army bill were under consideration. The senator from South Dakota will give the names and the facts in detail, reading from the official records.

If he carries out his purpose and goes into the matter exhaustively he will throw a flood of light upon manipulations which have astonished the country during the last week or ten days.

HAS AN UGLY TONGUE.

Mr. Pettigrew is not the most popular man in the country and in the senate he is not well liked by his colleagues. But his ability is much admired by all and by some it is feared. Everyone concedes that he has an ugly tongue and when his accusations are backed by the facts he is an antagonist not to be despised.

In this case he appears to have the facts on his side. In addition to showing how the executive has presumably stifled the democratic conscience as to Cuba and the Philippines, the South Dakota senator proposes to demonstrate, by a citation from the records, how the republican leaders of the senate have engaged in the same sort of tactics—how they have led their democratic brethren up into the mountains and tempted them.

Mr. Pettigrew will analyze the river and harbor bill and point out how this democratic senator and that democratic senator has been given his little piece of pie in that measure. He will give names and figures.

MAY SHUT HIM OFF.

Unless the republicans can find some way of shutting off the peppery Pettigrew, or the democrats can succeed in coaxing him not to expose their little weaknesses, the country is likely to have something to think about. A little light upon the manner in which the game of politics is played at the two ends of Pennsylvania avenue might not be a bad thing.

For several days the republican leaders of the senate have been boasting tha they had the democrats where they wanted them. In the river and harbor bill the southern senators have been trated with great generosity. "We have held this back till after the Cuban and Philippines amendments wer disposed," said a prominent republican senator today. "That river and harbor bill is a strong pusher for the measures which we must get through in order to carry out our party plans."

Another senator likened the river and harbor bill to a big mogul engine that was used to push a heavy train up a steep mountain grade.

THINK IT A FINE JOKE.

The republican senators think all this a good joke. They are also in great glee over the neat manner in which they pulled off Vest, Cockrell and other western and southern democrats with the St. Louis fair appropriation bill.

If the truth were known probably it would appear that the St. Louis fair bill has been purposely held up as another pusher for the scheme to put a protectorate over Cuba and to give the president unlimited power in the Philippines.

Senator Tillman was bought off with the appropriation for the Charleston fair. Senator Morgan put in his bid to be bought off by passing the Nicaraguan canal bill. But the price came too high and the republicans would not pay it.

Other senators have been handled in various ways. The tobacco schedule of the war tax bill was one of the agencies employed in the cases of some southern senators. This glimpse behind the scenes of the Washington show could be enlarged upon a great deal if one cared to do so.

CELRO
A REVELATION

FATAL RESULT OF A FALL.

Spencerville, Ind., Feb. 27.—Peter Bishop, aged 77 years, a pioneer business man of this place, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, of paralysis, the result of an accident sustained Monday. He was bringing in a bucket of coal and passing over an icy spot in the yard slipped and fell. The jar to his system paralyzed him and he never recovered. Mr. Bishop was a pioneer business man, coming here in the early 50's. He retired from mercantile life some years ago, with a comfortable fortune. He leaves a widow and the following children: Melvin, a leading business man of St. Joe, recently presidential elector on the prohibition ticket; George A., former clerk of DeKalb county and now in business at Auburn; Edward, of Auburn, and John, of St. Joe, both prominent business men; Mrs. Alice Zimmerman, of Auburn, and Mrs. Minerva Keaggy, of St. Joe. The deceased was a brother-in-law of the Messrs. A. H. and J. R. Bittenger, of Fort Wayne. He was a devoted Christian all his life and always took a prominent part in church work.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

A RIVAL OF ZIMRI DWIGGINS

BANKER EDMUND PALMER GOES BROKE AND TO JAIL.

His Various Country Banks Are in a Bad Way—Has One Bank in Indiana Town.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Edmund Palmer, whose banks at Desplaines and Ashley, Ill., and Ellettsville, Ind., have closed with liabilities estimated at more than $80,000, was arrested today at his home in Desplaines, a village twelve miles from Chicago.

No formal charge was preferred against Palmer, the arrest having been made on the request of the authorities of Ashley.

Claims against the Ashley bank are said to aggregate $40,000, at Ellettsville $30,000, and at Desplaines $12,000. It is not believed any action will be taken by the Desplaines authorities.

Palmer, who was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1884, practiced law for a time in Minneapolis and later became high school teacher in this city.

After organizing the string of banks which have now been closed, he became interested in the development of liquid air and traveled extensively, lecturing on the subject. He said today that inability to realize on his securities in liquid air projects was the cause of the closing of the banks. He asserted if allowed to carry out his plans he would have been able to pay all claims in full.

PASSION PLAY TONIGHT.

At the West Creighton avenue Church of Christ this evening Rev. John L. Brandt, the famous lecturer and traveler, will show moving pictures of the Passion play, as given at Oberammergau last year. The apparatus used by Rev. Brandt is one of his own invention and the pictures were taken by him last year. There are twenty-five films, making in all seventy-five miles of pictures, and there are besides 150 stereopticon views. The moving picture machine reproduces in a most lifelike manner scenes from the birth of Christ to the ascension, and are described in a graphic and interesting lecture. The entertainment is far above the average, and the series of pictures owned by Professor Brandt are the most complete in existence. The excellence of the exhibition is attested by the fact that Professor Brandt has engagements one year in advance, the present date having been secured in December, 1899.

J. C. F. McMaken, the well known Washington township farmer, is confined to his home as the result of a severe fall.

MADE A GOVERNOR

UNCLE OF AGUINALDO GIVEN HIGH POSITION.

IN THE PROVINCE OF BULACAN

ONCE AN INSURGENT COLONEL, HAS BEEN DEGRADED.

SOME PROTESTS WERE MADE

VOTING OF NATIVES WATCHED WITH INTEREST.

Guiginto, Province of Bulacan, Philippine Islands, Feb. 27.—12:35 p. m.—Jose Serahio, an uncle of Aguinaldo, and formerly an insurgent colonel, has been appointed governor of Bulacan province. There were several candidates, including two army officers, but the United States commission was unanimously in favor of Serahio, who surrendered during General Lawton's progress northward and who has since been such a consistent friend of the United States that Aguinaldo published an order degrading his uncle.

There was considerable protest against Serahio's appointment, chiefly from a delegation which represented the interests of the friars. The commission announced that it had investigated the allegations made against Serahio and found them to be untrue. Captain Grecnough, of the Forty-first regiment, was appointed treasurer, and Lieutenant Wells, of the Thirty-second regiment, was appointed supervisor. The other officials appointed were natives.

All the appointments, practically, were made on General Grant's recommendations.

Although by reputation Bulacan is not the easiest province to govern, all the local leaders and most of the inhabitants are now friendly to the United States.

The question of the selection of a capital for the province was submitted to the vote of the delegations. Malolos, the former seat of the insurgent congress, is the best town, but Bulacan has always been the seat of the government and was easily first. The ballot was the first free voting in the Philippines, excepting at the town elections held under military orders. The delegates enjoyed it immensely.

Judge Taft, in admonishing the delegates, said that since they had the reputation of being gamesters, they must abide by the result and show their capability of abiding by the suffrage.

During the course of his speech announcing the appointments, Judge Taft said nowhere had a military commander shown such benevolent consideration for the interests of the people as had General Grant.

The appointment of a native governor indicated the commission's confidence in Tagalogs.

REBELLION SUBSIDING.

Manila, Feb. 27.—Pro-American sentiment is spreading in former insurgent strongholds. Six hundred and sixty-five persons voluntarily took the oath of allegiance at Camiling, province of Albay, at one time reported as, next to Luzon, the worst insurgent center, and that 300 took the oath at Calamba. Captain Chase, with a detachment of the Twenty-first regiment, in a three days' scouting expedition, dispersed 200 insurgents and destroyed their main camp, that of Pedro Cabellos.

Lieutenant James, with a detachment of the Eighth infantry, raided a Ladrone rendezvous at MacQuilling, island of Polo, killing two men, securing 150 prisoners and destroying twenty tons of rice and other insurgent supplies.

The armored cruiser Brooklyn has returned here from Hong Kong.

Additional evidence against Carman and Carranza, the merchants accused of dealing with the insurgents, has developed. The investigation in the charges against them is being vigorously prosecuted.

NEW BILL LIKELY

TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING HAS STIRRED LEGISLATURE.

MAY PASS A NEW MEASURE

PROVIDING FOR REMOVAL OF SHERIFFS.

TEMPERANCE BILL KILLED

RESULT OF WOMAN'S PRISON INVESTIGATION.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—The lynching of George Ward at Terre Haute yesterday is likely to have the effect of inducing the passage of another lynching bill by the legislature in which one of the salient features will be a provision for the removal of sheriffs who fail to protect from mob violence prisoners in their custody.

The house today killed the Scott temperance bill and the track elevation bill, a measure urged by the city of Indianapolis.

The senate adopted a favorable report on the bill providing that 20 per cent of a man's wages may be garnished, favored the report on the bill providing that the written instructions of a judge may be taken into the jury room, advanced the bill relating to the soldiers' and sailors' orphans' home, the provision being that orphaned children of veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars are eligible to admission.

There is now practical certainty that Superintendent Hert, of the Jeffersonville reformatory, against whom charges have been made and whose conduct of his office a commission has investigated, will be exonerated.

THE WOMAN'S PRISON.

The house by a practically unanimous vote, this afternoon passed the bill to remove the board of woman managers of the Woman's Prison and Industrial School for Girls. The bill requires the governor to appoint a new board of managers and makes the members removable at will.

This is the result of the investigation by a legislative committee of charges of cruelty made against the management of the institution.

In line with the action by the house and in a measure forecasting it was the announcement yesterday by the investigating committee that no further testimony in substantiation of the charges will be taken, but that Miss Kelly and any witness that she may desire to have examined will be called.

CRITICISM OF MANAGEMENT.

It is said that the committee will find that the punishments have been too frequent, too often inflicted for trivial offenses or no offenses at all, too severe when inflicted, and too often the result of angry and vengeful moods on the part of the superintendent rather than of any intent on the part of the victims to defy the officers and willfully violate the rules of the institution.

Again, there is unanimity of sentiment among the members of the committee that some of the rules themselves are born of harshness and are calculated to lower the moral standard of the girls rather than prepare them for better lives when they emerge from the institution. This is particularly true of the rules that do not permit any personal adornment, but confine the girls to the plainest possible exterior as to dress, wearing their hair and the like.

Just why a girl, if she so desires, should be deprived of the pleasure of wearing a ribbon in her hair, or of curling her hair, or braiding it, is inexplicable to the committee.

SOME PUNISHMENTS.

Following are some extracts from the "punishment book" of the institution:

Locked in solitary for five days for talking in laundry; locked in dungeon for five days for same offense; given five days in dungeon for talking to company; handcuffed and whipped for using bad language; handcuffed to bed for going out of room; placed in stripes for saying "Bless Moses" to assistant superintendent; whipped for cutting up at table; sent from table in disgrace for grunting; slapped in the mouth for screaming; slapped for frowning; put in stripes for not having apron in the laundry; slapped for laughing at prayers; fourteen inmates whipped for not marching downstairs properly; put in solitary for giving a book to another inmate; whipped and locked up for not being at prayers promptly; whipped for getting in a swing on Sunday; six whipped for cutting their hair; slapped in the mouth for wetting hair; locked in dormitory for wearing ribbon in the hair; whipped for getting up in a window; whipped for not putting hands behind her; hands whipped for playing on the organ.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

LAHRMANN.

George Lahrmann, a pioneer farmer of Marion township and one of the best known of Allen county citizens, died Tuesday at his home on the Piqua road, eight miles south of the city. Mr. Lahrmann was seventy-eight years of age and death was due to kidney troubles.

He was a native of Wertemburg, Germany, born October 17, 1822, and when a lad of seven years came with his parents to America. They lived for five years at Canton, Ohio, then coming to Allen county and settling upon the farm which was Mr. Lahrmann's home for a period of sixty-seven years and until his death.

In October, 1850, he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Yeager, who survives him, and last October the aged couple celebrated the completion of fifty years of wedded happiness. There are eight children—Charles Lahrmann, of Aboite township; William Lahrmann, of Marion township; Mrs. M. Simon, of this city; Mrs. M. Springer, of Pleasant township; George Lahrmann, of Marion township, and John, Sarah and Edward Lahrmann, who reside at the old home.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and at 1:45 from the Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. Franke.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Kaade.—Funeral services of Theodore Kaade will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence, 75 Swinney avenue, and at 2 o'clock from St. John's Lutheran church.

King.—Funeral services of Miss Carrie M. King will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Dierstein, 2 Fairfield avenue. Both funeral and interment are private.

Braeuer.—Funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Braeuer will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence, 92 Heustis avenue, and at 2 o'clock from Emmanuel's church.

CONSUMPTION TO BE CURED

ELECTRICITY THE MEANS TO BE EMPLOYED.

A Giant Stock Company Formed to Establish Sanitariums in Various Places.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 27.—It is stated that a company will be organized here within a few days composed of Cleveland and eastern capitalists and capitalized at $1,000,000, to erect a system of sanitariums in the larger cities of the country for the cure of consumption by electricity.

It is alleged that a positive cure for the disease has been found.

Col. William S. Rogers, of the Brush Electric company, is one of the promoters of the company. He said:

"The company is financing a new invention. An absolute cure for consumption has been found. Electricity will play a most prominent part in the cure we are advancing, and we anticipate that the ends we aim at will be attained. Medicine plays no part whatever."

A site has been chosen and the first sanitarium will be built in this city at a cost of $180,000.

BIG TRACTION CONCERN.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 27.—The Traction and Light company, authorized capital of $4,000,000, was incorporated here today to manufacture light, heat and fuel; to do a transportation business in New Jersey not requiring a condemnation of property, and to construct and operate railroads outside of the state. The stock is divided into $1,000,000 first and $1,000,000 second preferred, each with 4 per cent. non-cumulative dividends. The rest of the stock is common. The incorporators are Samuel Thomas and Samuel B. Lawrence, of New York, and James C. Young, of Jersey City.

WILLING TO DISGORGE.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—A special to the Post from Omaha, Neb., says: Edward A. Cudahy has received a letter from the men who kidnaped his son, offering to return $20,000 of the ransom money on condition that all detectives be withdrawn and that no attempt be made to prosecute the abductors, should their identity be discovered. It is understood the letter was mailed at Council Bluffs.

The members of Fort Wayne lodge No. 116, Knights of Pythias, have decided to admit to membership the entire Olympia band, which will hereafter be known as the Knights of Pythias band. It will be the only lodge in the city having a band composed entirely of lodge members. T. N. Roach, who shortly leaves the city, was the guest of honor at a smoker given by the lodge last evening.

The Whole Truth!

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

There's nothing so good for a cough as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The 25 cent size is just right for an ordinary, everyday cold. The 50 cent size is better for the cough of bronchitis, croup, grip, and hoarseness. The dollar size is the best for chronic coughs, as in consumption, chronic bronchitis, asthma, etc.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1.00.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express a large bottle to you, all charges prepaid. Be sure you give us your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

SURPRISED

Flavor of Food Won Her.

"When the landlady told me that the new dish at my plate was the much-talked-of food, Grape-Nuts, I tasted it languidly, expecting the usual tasteless, insipid compound posing under some one of the various names of 'breakfast foods.'

"I am a school teacher and board. Have usually been in robust health, but last spring I had the much-dreaded symptoms of spring fever set in with great severity. I could hardly keep at my work and headaches were almost constant. Food had become nauseating and I only partook of any sort of food from a sense of duty.

"My nights were spent in distress. The first taste of Grape-Nuts yielded a flavor that was new and attracted me at once. I arose from the table satisfied, having enjoyed my meal as I had not done for weeks. So I had Grape-Nuts food for breakfast every day and soon found other reasons besides my taste for continuing the food.

"All of the spring fever symptoms disappeared, the headaches left, my complexion cleared up, and after a supper of Grape-Nuts I found myself able to sleep like a baby, in spite of a hard day and hard evening's work. The food has never palled on my appetite nor failed in furnishing a perfect meal, full of strength and vigor. I know from my own experience of the value of this food for any one who feels strength lagging under the strain of work, and it is evident that the claim made by the makers that it is a brain food is well taken. Please omit my name if you publish this." The lady lives in Hanover, Ind. Name supplied by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

HARD FIGHT ON.

[Bluffton News.

An intense war is on in business circles at Ossian. Beatty & Doan have conducted the lumber, brick and tile business in that section and have had the exclusive handling of all the grain at that point. A few months ago they bought a line of builders' hardware and added it to their stock in trade. This movement was regarded by F. M. Thurber, the hardware merchant, as an infringement upon his line of trade.

As retaliatory measures Mr. Thurber arranged with Charles Bash, of Fort Wayne, to buy grain and has established an elevator at Ossian. He has also put in a stock of lumber in the armory building at East Ossian, and the rumor is prevalent that he will begin the construction of a brick yard and tile mill this spring. Messrs. Beatty & Doan will add banking business to their other lines, for all of which they have ample capital.

The business world of the northern part of the county seems generally torn up in competition of a class that usually proves of little benefit either to consumer or those in charge.

DIED IN GERMANY.

A cablegram Tuesday to G. Max Hofmann, superintendent of the Fort Wayne Gas company, brought the sad intelligence of the death of his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Hofmann, which occurred at her home near Dresden. Mrs. Hofmann was eighty-three years of age. Her husband died about a year ago, and Mr. Hofmann was planning to make a visit to Germany soon for a visit to his aged mother.

A correspondent telegraphs from South Africa that General DeWet wept when told the British were coming. The dispatch does not state whether he wept for himself or the British.

Reform, like charity, is best begun at home and the wife of a saloonkeeper at Elnora, this state, approving the methods of Mrs. Nation, went into her husband's "joint" during his absence and very effectually wrecked the liquor dispensary.

It has been repeatedly stated that a keen sense of his unpopularity was slowly killing Admiral Sampson. If this be true the latest criticism aroused by his letter in the Gunner Morgan affair is likely to afford no sudden or permanent improvement of his health. Admiral Sampson should take common sense in heroic doses and quit taking his pen in hand.

There is a bit of humor in the announcement from Washington that the senate's action with respect to the relations of this government with Cuba is wholly satisfactory to the president. It ought to be. No one can foresee the outcome and for whatever happens the senate and not the president will be forced to shoulder responsibility. For good or ill the president now has instructions to observe and a policy to enforce. Moreover, the conditions which hedge the president are said by Senator Beveridge to be "very elastic," which will give him all the latitude he may desire without much increasing his responsibility.

THE TERRE HAUTE AFFAIR.

Whatever has been or may be said that applies with truth and force to mob vengeance anywhere applies to the atrocious affair at Terre Haute yesterday. The lynching and burning of the negro Ward was distinguished by no features to make it better or worse than such examples of mob violence as other communities have furnished. It was outrageous, disgraceful, a crime against humanity, an offense to all law and is a blot on the character of the community in which it occurred. It pollutes the name and multiplies the disgrace of this state, which in a period of little more than four years has been the scene of the lynching of eleven men.

That the people of Terre Haute should have been stirred to intense infuriation by the crime of the negro was most natural. That they should have demanded summary punishment of him was also natural. That they should have resorted to unspeakable brutality in appeasing a natural anger was an exhibition of pure savagery. Obedience to the prescriptions of the law, acquiesence in the orderly processes of justice mark precisely the difference between savagery and civilization.

The spectacle furnished by Terre Haute yesterday is not edifying. In one of the largest cities of one of the greatest and supposedly most enlightened states of the north a man was taken at high noon from jail and murdered by a mob, to whose mad bent practically no resistance was offered. In the presence of acquiescent thousands he was shot, hanged and burned. Indiana has had a tolerably long record of lawless hangings Now the state mounts to the "bad eminence" of having "burned a nigger," and is ready for proud classification with Georgia, Texas, Kentucky and other states whose mobs and bonfires have erstwhile so rudely shocked with horror our finer sense.

THORPE GOES TO JAIL.

The only sinner at the mayor's bar of justice this morning was Jabez L. Thorpe. Jabez had been up against other bars yesterday, as he was slated for drunkenness. He was also accused of frightening little girls at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets, but was sent over on the intoxication charge. The mayor gave him the limit, $25 and costs, which will give the old fellow a rest until after easter. He is an intolerable nuisance and his relatives, who have been written to, refuse to have anything more to do with him. When he is released in April he will be sent out of town.

The police force is looking up the boys who turned in a false alarm of fire last night. The mayor says that if found they will surely be punished, but as the same statement has been often made before, the lads who delight in that kind of sport give little attention to the threats and warnings.

ALL ARE HELPING.

The universal interest of the people of Fort Wayne in the auditorium project is illustrated by a letter received this morning by P. A. Randall, president of the Commercial club. Omitting the signature the letter is as follows:

"Hon. P. A. Randall, City—Dear Sir:—If there is a man in Fort Wayne who has pulled harder against the stream of adversity than I have in the past three years he ought to be lassoed and put on exhibition. But yet out of my poverty I want to do something, very little though it may be, to insure the success of the auditorium project. Herewith I hand you check for $5.00 for five shares of stock to be issued to my son."

MAY LYNCH HIM

INDIANAPOLIS PEOPLE IN MOBBISH MOOD.

NEGRO RAVISHER IDENTIFIED

VICTIM RECOGNIZES PICTURE OF MAN UNDER ARREST.

THE TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—Dorothy Darter, a young girl residing at Irvington, a suburb of this city, who was brutally assaulted by a negro Thursday afternoon, today was shown the photograph of a colored man under arrest on suspicion at New Castle.

Miss Darter positively identified the picture as that of her assailant, but added that she should like to see him in order to be sure of his identity.

He probably will be brought before her at once.

Owing to the extremely revolting nature of the assault, which occurred in the center of Irvington in daylight, sentiment against the negro has been aroused to such a pitch that he is almost certain to be lynched if possible.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken by the police department to prevent mob vengeance, however.

It is understood that Reed, the man under arrest at New Castle, will be brought here late this afternoon to face Miss Darter.

THE TERRE HAUTE AFFAIR.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 27.—Sheriff Fasig today made a full report of the lynching of George Ward to Governor Durbin, in which the sheriff says he swore in a large force of deputies and took every precaution possible to prevent lynching.

The grand jury will meet in a few days and will be instructed to rigorously investigate the matter before taking up any other business.

The funeral of Miss Finkelstein, the victim, was held today, and the rabbi who conducted the services strongly condemned the conduct of the mob.

A GIRL ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Elkhart, Ind., Feb. 27.—Miss Maude Jackson, a young woman of Elkhart, attempted suicide with morphine. She was discovered in a serious condition, and her mother administered emetics in vain. A physician reached her when she was fast sinking, and her life was saved. Despondency over a love affair was the cause of the attempt.

DEPOSIT OF YELLOW OCHRE.

Churubusco, Ind., Feb. 27.—While cutting a large ditch from Oak lake to Hecla, in this county, the ditchers found a bank of yellow clay, which, upon being tested, has proven to be a good quality of yellow ochre. The field is extensive and is generally considered a profitable find. It will be turned to commercial account.

ELECTION CONTRACT IN COURT.

Bluffton, Ind., Feb. 27.—David Long filed suit today against the Adams Stave and Heading company for $22.50 on a written contract, dated November 3. By terms of the contract Adams agreed to pay Long $1.50 a day in the event that McKinley was elected, and $1.25 if Bryan was elected. Adams was to retain the twenty-five cents a day as Long's guarantee that he would keep sober.

A RELIGIOUS REIGN.

Frankfort, Ind., Feb. 27.—Rev. John Cark, of this city, has succeeded in stirring up the greatest religious excitement at Clarks Hill that that little town ever knew. He went there a few weeks ago to conduct an undenominational revival, and did so with success, but at the close of his series of meetings he organized a Holiness congregation and arrangements were at once begun to build a church Farmers and merchants neglected their business to engage in the work of the church. When the Holiness converts begun their work of organization the old church circles were torn up and a church war has resulted. Many of the new converts to Holiness doctrine have become so enthused that they are refusing to call physicians when their families need them, claiming that a season of prayer is all that is required. Many go into trances every day and evening and declare that God has revealed Himself to them.

KOKOMO AND THE POLICE.

Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 27.—The unexpected action of the legislature in giving Kokomo a metropolitan police system has brought about a renewal of the old struggle between citizens in the appointment of the police commissioners. The "liberal" element has sent a delegation to Governor Durbin, asking that commissioners be named who will not demand a strict construction of the liquor laws. The other element, known as the "good citizens," do not want a wide-open policy followed. A public meeting was held at the Presbyterian church Monday night, when a committee representing the "good citizens" was appointed, and Governor Durbin will be asked to make no appointments until the general public of the city be given a hearing. A civic league was also organized at the meeting and a committee of twenty was to go to Indianapolis yesterday to talk with Governor Durbin.

LIEN ON A CHURCH.

Logansport, Ind., Feb. 27.—Harrison Grant, a contractor, has brought suit to foreclose a mechanic's lien against the Church of God. The congregation recently completed the new building, which was largely the work of Rev. Alexander Reed's own hands. He made most of the excavation, assisted in laying the foundation, drew the plans for the church, superintended the construction, and did as much with hammer and saw as the most experienced carpenter on the job. At one time the roof fell in, seriously endangering the lives of the workmen. Rev. Reed is undaunted by misfortune, and is pluckily carrying his plans for dedication into effect.

SUPERINTENDENT DISMISSED.

Logansport, Ind., Feb. 27.—The Winimac school board has summarily dismissed Superintendent A .T. Reid, after he had refused to resign. His resignation was demanded on charges made by Miss Pearl Lemasters, who has been living with the Reid family and attending High school. He had been superintendent of the Winamac schools for eight years, and is well educated. He is a graduate of Miami university, the State Normal and Iron City Business college, and had spent a year in medical schools. He taught two years at the State Normal and one year at Sullivan, Ind

CONTEST FOR CORONER.

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 27.—There is a spirited contest among aspirants to the office of county coroner, made vacant by the death of Charles Comesky. Numerous petitions are being circulated. The impression is that Dr. Ephrain Raub will get the place. He was defeated for the office at the last election.

BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Wheeling is very anxious to break into the Inter-State this season, and there is talk among the Stogietown fans of organizing a stock company to run a team this year. "Pop" Lytle and Sammy Nichols, of Wheeling, are willing to take the management of the team providing a company is organized. The Sister's Island Country club, composed of a number of Wheeling sports, would erect a grandstand and lay out grounds on the lower Sister's island, near that city, where Sunday games could probably be played. It is very unlikely, however, that Wheeling will be in the Inter-State circuit this year.

Indianapolis Press: "George Mullin, well known in base ball circles in Indiana, is trying to get his release from the Fort Wayne club of the Inter-State league in order to accept an offer made by Charles Comiskey, of the Chicago American league club. Comiskey offers Mullin $160 a month to play with the White Stockings. George Fuller, who caught for Wabash last year, has signed with Fort Wayne and will do most of the catching for that club. Jack Bowen, another Wabash player, has signed to play left field for the Omaha, Neb., team, and George Rohe, a former Wabash shortstop, will be seen with McGraw's Baltimore team this year."

The Sentinel on Monday predicted that the National league would yield to the demands of the players and then the players in turn would stand by the National league and thus force the American league into an agreement or else leave it to fight its battles alone and without the support of the players. How well grounded was The Sentinel's belief is shown by the following extract from the press report of yesterday's meeting in New York:

"That the National league had imposed a 'war measure' upon the players in return for concessions was confirmed later in the evening when President Zimmer, of the Players' association, signed the following agreement and sent it to the magnates:

"'As president of the Protective Association of Base Ball Players, and as its authorized representative, I hereby agree in return for the concessions granted by the National league and American association of professional base ball clubs, this 26th day of February, 1901, that all National league and Eastern league players who may sign American league contracts will be suspended pending action by the Players' Protective association as a body.'"

President Powers, of the American association, says his league is not dead. Maybe it dead and maybe it is not. Maybe it is dead and Powers don't know it.

CITY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

The city democratic committee has been called to meet this evening at the city hall. The object of the meeting as stated in the call is to organize and formulate plans for the coming city campaign. Up to date, owing to the disturbed condition of city affairs, occasioned by legislation concerning the city government, the political arena has been remarkably quiet. Before the meeting of the legislature there were no candidates for mayor announced, although it was generally conceded that Mayor Scherer would be a candidate for re-election. Now, however, since he has practically been legislated out of office, other candidates are being dug up and some are bestirring themselves a bit. The salary, which under the new charter, will be reduced to $1,000, of course cuts considerable ice and dampens the enthusiasm of the ambitious, but there are still a few left who are willing to sacrifice themselves on the altar of their city's weal and preside over the destinies of the community at even the cut rate price. Comptroller Berghoff is most prominently mentioned so far, but he has not yet signified his intention of entering the field. D. L. Harding, it is understood, is willing to assume the mantle once more and will put up a stiff fight, while it is also acknowledged that it would not take much persuasion to induce Councilman Hench to shy his castor into the ring. H. B. Monning is the only candidate for clerk who has yet avowed his intention of going into the fight, although there are several others who are anxious to be struck by official lightning and have their rods pointed high in the air. The meeting of the committee tonight, however, is not for the purpose of making or discussing candidates, but simply to get the machine in running order so that it will be ready for business when the time comes.

CALLED TO COVINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potthoff, of East Washington street, have gone to Covington, Ky., where they were called by the death of Henry Potthoff, a brother, which occurred at his home in that city Sunday at the age of sixty-seven years. Mr. Potthoff was a miller by occupation, and has frequently visited in this city.

WOMEN'S ILLS THAT GROW

Centerville, Iowa, March 7, 1900.

I suffered with falling of the womb for about 20 years. I would take weak spells and could not stand on my feet long enough to get a meal of victuals. At the age of 40 I grew worse. I tried doctors' medicines until I lost faith and had no hopes of ever getting better. I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and now I am strong enough to do my own housework. Mrs. H. W. HILLYARD.

"Female ills" are ills that grow. They never wear off. Mrs. Hillyard suffered 20 years. Thousands of women are slipping into premature graves, waiting for their troubles to right themselves. Your patient suffering entitles you to a better reward than this, but you do not get it. Much of the chronic female suffering to-day is due to the neglect of early menstrual irregularities, which frequently grow into troublesome complications even before the years of early womanhood are past. These troubles fasten on you so slowly and gradually that the delicate female organs are wrecked before you realize it. Mrs. Hillyard's 20 years' suffering was brought to a close when she began taking

WINE OF CARDUI

It worked the beginning of a new era in her life—an era of freedom from suffering. Is it not strange that a woman will go on enduring the terrible dragging pains of falling of the womb, the torture of painful menstruation and the distresses of leucorrhœa—the ills that grow—when it is so well established that Wine of Cardui will cure them? Mrs. Hillyard could not be induced to go through her suffering again. Why do you endure it when Wine of Cardui offers you relief? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

WORKERS ADJOURN

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION COMPLETES ITS LABORS.

MR. GRAHAM ON TEMPERANCE

TERMS MRS. NATION A FEMALE JOHN BROWN.

MRS. THOMAS' FINE ADDRESS

REV. CARMAN SPEAKS ON CHILDHOOD'S CALL.

There were fervent "amens" and a vigorous clapping of hands when the name of Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon wrecker, was mentioned in the course of a vigorous address upon temperance by James E. Graham before the Allen County Sunday school convention this morning. "I do not approve of the violation of law," said Mr. Graham, "but the day will come when we will be raising monuments to Mrs. Nation and be singing her praises in song."

Rev. Shoemaker led the morning devotions, and a number of townships presented reports. The convention then took up "The Sunday School Teacher" in a round table discussion that brought out thoroughly the qualities necessary for efficient work as a teacher in the Sunday school, and the methods by which the most complete and highest work may be accomplished.

A POWERFUL PLEA.

Hon. James E. Graham, of this city, made a powerful plea for temperance in a fervent address that held the closest attention of his hearers. Mr. Graham pointed out that the pioneer temperance people and prohibitionists have been treated precisely as were the abolitionists before the civil war. All great political parties see that intemperance is a national evil. The plan of agitation has been tried as a means of correcting it, but that has proven of no avail, because the evil lives by law. Petitions to congress and to state legislatures are likewise inefficient, because the liquor traffic is in the hands of men who can combine capital and control legislatures

"Then," continued Mr. Graham, "they tried electing good men to office. Same old result. The abolitionists organized the liberty party and the temperance people organized the prohibition party. The year 1890 was dark for the prohibitionists, but not so dark as was 1852 for the liberty party. Persecution has come to the prohibitionists, but you will recall that out of the persecution of the liberty party came the final triumph of emancipation. Even now a female John Brown has arisen in Kansas. A prohibitory law is all right with a true man behind it. I do not approve of the violation of law, but the day will come when the people will be building monuments to Carrie Nation and singing her praises in song. The liquor dealers in Kansas are outlaws, and have no right there, for the statutes prohibit the traffic. Mark my words: Mrs. Nation will never be tried; they dare not make a legal record there of what the law is. I'm in favor of protection, but it is for the protection of the million American boys who are just taking their first drink. You talk about expansion—but how about the expansion that is going on in the liquor trade?

"Now, I want to say to the mothers, wives and sisters, keep on praying; it's all you can do. I am in favor of woman suffrage, but I doubt if the women were to vote whether this question would be any nearer settled than it is now. I notice that in states where they have female suffrage the temperance question is not advancing any more rapidly than elsewhere. To the men let me say: Quit praying to God to remove the liquor traffic until you are willing to register your personal protest against the business."

MRS. THOMAS SPEAKS.

The subject assigned to Mrs. Thomas was changed to "Looking at Things From the Wrong Standpoint," and in part Mrs. Thomas said:

"We often hear it said that the standpoint alters the view, and I would have you look at Sunday school work only from the right standpoint. Its full beauty is only revealed upon close inspection. This work is infinite in its possibilities and divine in its rewards. The teacher in influencing the hearts and minds of young people is doing God's own work. You may not see results as quickly as you desire; the work sometimes seems to go slowly. Be faithful, and bye and bye a new character will stand out glorious in its relation to God.

"We are looking at the work from a wrong standpoint when we neglect detail; when we fail to attend carefully to the business interests of the school. There must be more or less machinery, but it should be kept in the background. We see the work from the wrong standpoint when we are listless and half-hearted. Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm. This is an age of progress. How is it with our Sunday school work? We see it from the wrong standpoint when we fail to recognize the power of prayer. O, how few times we hear prayer for the Sunday school. We look from a wrong standpoint when we fail to recognize the necessity of giving time to the work. I believe God's work needs earnest, consecrated time more than it needs money. We ought to be glad we have a part in it. We are in a wrong standpoint when we regard it as work only for the boys and the girls; we see it wrongly when we fail to make thorough and careful preparation. We must be full—brimfull—of the lesson. Then remember that our teaching will go no farther than our lives will carry it. There must be nothing in our lives that needs covering up. When our lives correspond to our teaching then, and only then, will we be qualified to teach this wonderful Word The great burden of our work and the great burden of our prayer should be soul-harvesting. All teaching should lead to Christ. It is wrong to allow discouragement to overcome us. A brave heart is the truest wisdom of the hour."

POWER, NOT MACHINERY.

"We need more power, not more machinery, in Sunday school work," said Rev. J. C. Evans, of Bethel Evangelical church. "This is an aggressive age. Things move rapidly in church, in state and in every department of existence. The church has much machinery and the work of invention has not yet stopped. Until all the boys and the girls are gathered into the folds of the church I shall believe that the most perfect machine has not yet been invented. I look back a quarter of a century and I note that we did not have the church helps that we now enjoy. Back a little further there were no Sunday school quarterlies and the teacher went before his class with only the open Bible. A machine amounts to but very little if there is no power behind it. The Sunday school needs the power of the Holy Ghost. We need the power of prayer. We must earnestly pray to God for the conversion of the children entrusted to our care. Prayer is the keynote that unlocks God's treasure house. Then we need the power of love. There can be no good character without the love of God in the heart to inspire him on as a living epistle. We want more power and less machinery."

THE CLOSING SESSION.

This afternoon's session closed the work of the convention, and there is a pronounced conviction that it has been a most interesting and profitable one. This afternoon Dr. James English led the devotions and the round-table work was upon the Home Class department. Mrs. Bryner continued her talks, with the subject, "Next Sunday's Lesson," and Rev. J. C. Carman gave an address upon "Normal Work." This was followed by the reports of the committees on resolutions and nominations, the election of officers and final adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

Berry street church was completely filled Tuesday evening by interested Sunday school workers who desred to hear Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, of Chicago, and Rev. J. C. Carman, the state superintendent. Mrs. Bryner is a recognized authorty upon primary teaching and in a half hour talk, using the blackboard diagrams, Mrs. Bryner gave many ideas that will be of advantage in instructing the children. In part Mrs. Bryner said:

"The teacher should not tell the child things that are beyond its comprehension, but the explanation should be so made that the child can grasp the idea and retain it. The teacher has a responsibility to Christ, the child and the church, showing Christ to the child, bringing the child to Christ, and making the child a worker in the church. The teacher should be thoroughly prepared before beginning the lesson. She should gather together all she can about it, and find out what part will be most instructive and profitable. The teacher should get the child's attention and keep it. She should aim at something, so that when the lesson is over the child will have profited by it. She should have a beginning and end to the lesson, omitting in the course of instruction those things that will be hard to understand and at the same time of no value when they are understood. The child should be taught responsibility and not given entertainment alone. The songs which the class will sing must be carefully selected and those used which fit the occasion. A song sung with a purpose will be three times as effectve as one selected merely to fill up time."

CHILD A QUESTION MARK.

"Childhood's Call to the Church" was the theme of Rev. J. C. Carman, the state superintendent, and he handled his subject in a most interesting manner. In opening Rev. Carman expressed his pleasure at speaking in Allen county, which he said was one of the best in the state in Sunday school work. Continuing, he sad in part:

"My subject is one with which everyone is more or less acquanted. I should call a child, more than anything else, a question mark. The child's soul hungers for information and it is through the information thus supplied that the child will be brought to the church. These questons will nearly all be propounded in the home and it is the home religion and family prayer that will show the child the right way. The father and mother are of infinitely more aid to the little one than a hundred Sunday school teachers can be, if they observe the home religion. There is many a father and mother thinking more of gold than of the child. I know personally of the case of a prominent business man in a city not far distant from Fort Wayne. When a boy he had been to church and became impressed with the word of God. Ther was an effort to secure his conversion and it was thought that it would be successful. When the boy went home from church, fully resolved in his own heart to become a Christian, his parents, who were members of the church, did not say a word of encouragement to him, and he said if his parents did not care he did not care either. The result was that he grew up under the influence of the world and is still far from God. The home must help the child and the Sunday school must awaken to the needs of Christ in the home. The child must not be allowed to grow up with the world only for a guide. The soul cry of the young must be heeded and in this work the home must be first. The child must first be evangelized and then educated."

PASTORAL WORK.

"The Pastoral Work of the Teacher" was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Nettie Hubler, secretary of the convention. Mrs. Hubler said:

There are so many phases of this branch of Sunday school work that we hardly know which ones to dwell upon, but will try to take a few of the most important.

The teaching work is by no means the only work of the Sunday school teacher. There is the pastoral work of shaping and guiding the scholar, a work that is even more important to the scholar's character and destiny than the work of merely teaching him.

First, the teacher's influence is a great power for good upon the child to shape or sway or bias him accordingly. In order to have and use influence (good influence, of course) a teacher must be a Christian. The influence which it is the teacher's duty to exert is two-fold—voluntary and involuntary, intended and unintentional, conscious or unconscious. To begin with, a teacher ought to be clear in his mind as to the direction in which he would influence his scholars by his words and by his endeavors.

A teacher inevitably influences more by what he is seven days in the week than by what he says one day in the week.

He sways his scholars by his own character. In order to do his best teaching, a teacher must be the best man he can be. We often forget the influence we exert over others.

No teacher would intentionally do anything that would destroy his influence for good with his scholars, and he cannot be too careful in that regard. The teacher sometimes gets discouraged because the influence for good is not manifested immediately in the scholar's character or conduct. "Be not weary in well-doing," the harvest of your influence may be today and again it may be years hence.

Second, the true measure of a Sunday school teacher's personal power over his scholars is found in his love for them, and if you are possessed with love for souls you will have power with your scholars.

Some years ago a man was walking along a street in Lowell, Mass., looking for the home of a Sunday school superintendent, with whom he was to pass the Sabbath. He was not sure of the house, so he stopped a thinly clad little girl, who was passing, and pointing to the house asked if Deacon Chase lived there. "I don't know if it's 'Deacon' Chase," was the little girl's reply, "but the man who lives there is called 'Chase' and he loves little children."

That is a description which every Sunday school teacher might long for.

Again, there is the work of reaching the scholars when absent. "Out of sight, out of mind" is an adage that often applies to the Sunday school scholar.

If a scholar is absent one time from the Sunday school and no notice is taken of his absence he naturally thinks the tie that bound him to his teacher is not a very strong one. It may be some outside temptation that caused his absence, or it may be his lack of interest in his class or his teacher. But if the teacher visits him the week following or even sends a kindly note to him, it may be the means of getting him back again from influences that are not for his good. Then it may be that sickness is the cause of his absence and if the teacher visits him at such a time and shows his sympathy with him in his trouble a new hold is gained on confidence and affection. While the teacher's absence at such a time is thought by the scholar to be a lack of interest in him personally. Whatever the cause of a scholar's absence the teacher should not neglect hunting that one up and make him to feel he is interested in him

Sometimes the scholar can only be reached by such visits as these. The teacher should always show respect for him in his sphere of life and sympathize with him in all he has to do. Occasionally a chance meeting of a scholar on the street gives a better opportunity for an influential, personal word than any which the teacher could seek. Sunday school teacher, do not neglect these opportunities; they may come but once.

Again, take the matter of the scholar's reading. How many of the Sunday school teachers count themselves directly responsible for the books the scholars of their class select from the Sunday school library? Yet the teacher is responsible. The books the scholar reads have a great deal to do with shaping both his tastes and his character, and the teacher should use his power in that direction.

Books which are good for one scholar are not necessarily good for all. Scholars need wise counsel as to the books best suited to their needs and the teacher should give that counsel and try to cultivate a taste for the very best books they can get. Of course, it takes time and effort to do this, but all good works costs time and effort

Another point at which the counsel and help of the Sunday school teacher is always important is the care and guidance of Christian children.

An army is not given power as an army merely by new enlistments, it is the arming, the drilling, the disciplining, that makes the soldiers effective and a veteral battalion of two hundred men trained and experienced in faithful service is often more effective in the crisis of a battle than two or three full regiments of a thousand men each made up of raw recruits and inexperienced officers would prove. So it is in the Christian army. Trained and veteran soldiers are needed for the great Captain's service and it is the duty of the Sunday school teacher to equip and train the Christian soldiers of his class.

The pastoral duties and responsibilities of the Sunday school teacher are infinite. There is always work for him to do in this line.

Trumbull gives a good illustration of this work in the following:

"In the capital at Washington are two sets of massive metal doors with bronze panels, the one set representing scenes in the life of Washington and the other scenes in the life of Columbus. When these panels came from the foundry moulds they showed little of grace, or elegance of design, and nothing of the finish which they now display. Their surfaces were rough and their edges ragged. Then commenced the work of conforming the panels to the original models.

"Day after day skilled workmen sat over those bronze reliefs, polishing diligently, what might have seemed to the careless eye, already shaped properly.

Visiting the foundry at that time, Trumbull stood for a while near a careful worker on the panels and saw how faithfully he toiled. At length he said to him: "I shouldn't think you would know when you were through with this work, you seem always to have something to do." The man replied, "We never are through with it, so long as they will let us work at it: such work as this is never perfect. So we keep at it until they take the panels away, and then, of course, we must stop."

Such is the pastoral work of the Sunday school teacher. Work on character, like work on bronze figures, is never finished in this life. What was touched yesterday needs retouching today. In the thought of this truth every teacher ought to live, work, pray and trust.

"Standing still is dangerous ever.
Toil is meant for Christians now;
Let there be when evening cometh
Honest sweat upon thy brow:
And the Master shall come smiling
At the setting of the sun,
Saying, as he pays the wages,
Good and faithful one, well done."

RHEUMATISM

PAIN-CRAZED.

THROBBING MUSCLES, ACHING JOINTS, TWITCHING, TIRED NERVES.

When this demon disease drives his poison tipped javelins into the quivering muscles and nerves, the terrible body racking pains that follow drive the unfortunate sufferer almost insane. The pains are so intensely sharp and cutting they seem to chill the blood and stop the heart beats. Rapidly the parts affected become swollen and red, and so tender and sensitive that the lightest touch is painful. Every movement of the body adds to the agony; the nerves, too, give way under the terrible suffering, and the pain-crazed victim seeks in vain for rest and ease. Under such conditions it is not surprising that the sufferer from this torturing disease is readily persuaded to try any remedy that promises even temporary relief.

As many of the so-called cures contain a large per cent. of opium their use leads to ruinous habits, and the unsuspecting sufferer pays dearly for his short respite from pain.

There are many forms of Rheumatism, the most common being

Acute Inflammatory, which usually begins with chilly sensations, followed by high fever, a quick, strong pulse, and excruciating pains shifting to different parts of the body. When the inflammation and fever subside it leaves the patient in a weak, debilitated state, and liable at any time to a fresh attack.

Muscular Rheumatism affects the muscles and fibrous tissue, and an acute attack may totally disable one; the muscles becoming stiff and sore, and in many cases so contracted that any kind of work or walking is almost impossible.

Sciatica is Rheumatism or Neuralgia of the sciatic nerve, and is a most distressing form of this disease; the hips and thigh being involved, the body is sometimes bent almost double and greatly deformed.

Articular Rheumatism is attended with the most horrible pains in the joints and bones, often swelling to abnormal size and becoming permanently locked and immovable, when the crutch and stick are indispensable.

Rheumatism may be inherited like other blood diseases, and the wise parent well knows that what the child calls "growing pains" are sure symptoms of hereditary Rheumatism.

The use of Mercury, whether taken internally or used as a salve, produces a most shocking form of Rheumatism, causing necrosis of the bones, which work out through the flesh and produce the most sickening ulcers.

Rheumatism Follows La Grippe.

Mr. B. F. Gregory, of Union, S. C., was long an invalid and never free from pain. S. S. S. in a short time cured the disease, and he says that his general health is better than in years.

Painful Sciatica.

Mr. J. A. LeSeur, Atlanta, Ga., says if a fragment of bomb shell had passed through his hip the pain could have been no worse. He found no relief until S. S. S. was begun, and is now entirely cured.

No Use for Crutches.

Sciatic Rheumatism made Mrs. James Kell, of 1711 New York avenue, Washington, D. C., a cripple, but a few bottles of S. S. S. cured her, and she has no use for crutches now.

Couldn't Dress or Feed Himself.

Mr. J. O'Malley, 2135 No. Senate avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., tried fifty-two prescriptions for Muscular Rheumatism, but got no better. He took S. S. S. five years ago, and has been well and at work ever since.

Every Muscle and Bone Ached.

Mr. W. H. Settlage, Wapakoneta, O., says: "I was almost disabled by a long attack of Rheumatism. Medicines and liniments gave me little relief, and not until I began S. S. S. did the pains leave me, and I have not felt one in a year.

Had Become Chronic.

Two years ago Mr. Wm. L. Hill, of Winston, N. C., was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism. He says S. S. S. put his blood in excellent condition, and the pains all left him.

Settled in His Bones.

Mr. Earnest Dougherty, of Commerce, Mo., says the pains began in the bottom of his foot, then went to his knees, and finally it seemed every joint in his body was affected. Two bottles of S. S. S. made him all right again.

Couldn't Turn Over in Bed.

Mr. Chas. Whittingham, 1212 Fetter street, Louisville, Ky., had Acute Inflammatory Rheumatism so bad he could not turn in bed. S. S. S. cured him after all other treatment had failed.

It matters not what form the disease has assumed in your case, or where located, it is caused by acid poisons that have been absorbed into the blood and deposited in either the joints, muscles, membranes or nerves, and wherever lodged, these poisons have a corrosive, irritating effect, producing intense inflammation and pain. Liniments, hot baths, the electric battery, and plasters may relieve you some, but a cure will never come from their use. While the pains may be dislodged and scattered, they soon settle in some other portion of the body; often in the region of the heart, and liable to prove fatal at any moment. It is impossible to reach the diseased blood through external or surface treatment.

SSS

S. S. S., when taken into the circulation, soon neutralizes the acids and restores the blood to a pure and healthy condition, and when strong, rich blood once more flows through the body, the little gritty particles that have been gathering in the joints are dissolved and washed out, the feverish membranes cooled and nourished, and the muscles and joints become as supple and elastic as a child's. As the system gets under the influence of the medicine the appetite and digestion improve, the pains come only at long intervals, and before you realize it your Rheumatism is gone. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier; it contains no minerals whatever. Potash, alkalies and the mineral salts so often prescribed ruin the stomach and break down the general health.

CUBA'S STAND INDICATED

CLAUSES FIXING RELATIONS WITH UNITED STATES.

Will Not Permit Its Territory to be Used as Base of War Against Any Foreign Power.

Havana, Feb. 27.—The constitutional convention remained in session until 3 o'clock this morning completing the work of drawing up the clauses in the constitution referring to the relations between Cuba and the United States. A public session will be held this evening to sign the following relations, which have been adopted:

"1. The government of Cuba will not make a treaty or agreement with any foreign power which may compromise or limit the independence of Cuba, or which may permit or authorize any power to obtain, by means of colonization or for military or naval purposes, or in any other manner, any foothold or authority or right over any portion of Cuba.

"2. The government will not permit its territory to be used as a base of operations for war against the United States or against any foreign nation.

"3. The government of Cuba accepts in its entirety the treaty of Paris, in which is affirmed the rights of Cuba to the extent of the obligations which are explicitly indicated in these, and especially those which the international law imposes for the protection of life and property, and substitutes itself for the United States in the place, which they assumed in that sense according to articles 12 and 162 of the treaty of Paris.

"4. Cuba recognizes as legally valid all acts of the military government during the period of occupation, also the rights arising out of the conformity with the joint resolution and the Foraker amendment and the existing laws of the country.

"5. The governments of the United States and Cuba ought to regulate their commercial relations by means of a treaty based on reciprocity and with tendencies towards free trade in natural and manufactured products, mutually assuring ample special advantages in their respective markets."

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

The case of the state vs. Boals is on trial in the circuit court before a jury. The case is on appeal from a justice's court and is for assault and battery, in which Louis Clardot is the prosecuting witness. The Leonards appear for the defendant.

The county commissioners today visited the poor farm and county buildings for a final inspection before the retirement of Superintendent Felts.

In the circuit court in the case of Fleischman vs. Fleischman for divorce, the cross complaint has been withdrawn.

In the Watson vs. Watson partition case the defendant defaulted and the hearing of the case was set for March 7.

The case of the McCoy Lumber company vs. Osborne et al still occupies the attention of the superior court.

The suit of Baker vs. Ridenour has been dismissed.

In the case of Bessert vs. Bessert a motion to quash was filed and the plaintiff, Mrs. Bessert, was ordered to furnish a sufficient bond for costs.

MISTAKE IN NAMING ROAD

WHEELING AND LAKE ERIE NOT INTERESTED.

Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling the Probable Party in Wabash's Pittsburg Line.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 27.—President Blickensdorfer, of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad company, said today there was absolutely no truth in the report that a deal had been arranged whereby the Wabash company would gain an entrance into Pittsburg over his company's road. Mr. Blickensdorfer said he had no idea how the story started.

Another prominent local railway official said this afternoon that if there was a plan on foot to extend the Wabash line to Pittsburg the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling line was probably the road likely to be included in the deal.

A LIVELY DEBATE

COUNCIL DISCUSSES TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING.

RESOLUTIONS WERE OFFERED

POINTING MORAL ON METROPOLITAN POLICE.

WERE FINALLY WITHDRAWN

ONE COUNCILMAN APPLAUDS MOB'S WORK.

The city council met in regular session last evening, with barely a quorum present. It is remarkable what a lot of private business councilmen have on meeting nights and how much leisure they have just about election time. As a councilman gets about $6 per meeting night it would be interesting to note how much each one has received from the city for which no service was rendered. There was little important business up for consideration. The report of the committee of the whole, favoring the granting of a franchise to the American District Telegraph company was concurred in after considerable discussion. Councilman Haag was in favor of amending the report so as to make the minimum compensation to $100 instead of $24. The amendment was lost and the original report was concurred in, but the ordinance was not called up. The waterworks trustees sent in a communication announcing that the waterworks department had adopted the air pressure system and were preparing to install a permanent plant. They also declared that after the plant was installed, if one of the engines should break the city would be helpless and be without a water supply in case of fire; they recommended the authorization of the purchase of another engine for No. 2 station. The communication also called attention to the waste of water and cited that the average amount of water used was about ninety gallons per capita per day. The trustees assert that the only way to correct the abuse of the water privileges is by the introduction of the meter system. The event of the evening was the introduction of the following resolution by Councilman Hench:

"Whereas, The Indiana legislature is about to place Fort Wayne under the operation of a metropolitan police law, under the specious pretext of securing a better government and more orderly condition of affairs, and,

"Whereas, It is possible to forecast the future only by present and past occurrences, and

"Whereas, Under the present charter and the present police regulations Fort Wayne has been free from disorder and great crime; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the common council views the diabolical work of a mob at Terre Haute, unhindered as it was by police interference in a city where the metropolitan police force has full sway, as a potent illustration of the results of the incapacity, cowardice and corruption of a police force that is not responsible to the people it is supposed to protect, and,

"Resolved, That the common council of the city of Fort Wayne, the mayor concurring, hereby protest against the forcing upon Fort Wayne of a police system that is fundamentally wrong and certain to entail just such contempt for law as is exemplified by the Terre Haute mob, and,

"Resolved, That while we deplore the savagery of the mob that burned a negro criminal and denounce that act as inhuman and a reversion to barbarism, we yet recognize in it the logical outcome of the principle that seeks to take away self-government from a community, a principle which must bring in its train public abasement, degradation, moral bluntness, mobbery and anarchy, and,

"Resolved, Therefore, that in the interest of public morality and private right, we protest against the attempt to subject the people of Fort Wayne to the effects of such deprivation of home rule; to the effects of a corrupt police supervision—corrupt necessarily because manipulated by persons whose only interests are political aggrandizement and monetary gain, and,

"Resolved, That we respectfully refer Governor Durbin and the members of the legislature to the edifying spectacle at Terre Haute for a salutary lesson in the workings of the metropolitan police system, and beg them, in the interests of common humanity to spare us the infliction of such devilish exhibitions of cruelty and savagery by allowing us to continue to govern ourselves as we have in the past, and maintain Fort Wayne as a home of orderly and law-abiding citizens."

Mr. Hench moved the adoption and Mr. Lennart amended by moving to lay it on the table. Then the ball opened. Mr. Hench defended the resolution by saying that the claim of the Fort Wayne republican politicians made to the legislature in support of a metropolitan police bill for Fort Wayne cited that when Mark Hanna was in this city last fall somebody said "booh!" to him and the police refused to interfere. The same politicians represented that that night Fort Wayne was in the hands of a mob, which the police refused to molest, and that if there had been a metropolitan police the mob could not have existed— that mobs melt like snow before a metropolitan police and peace sublime in almost oppressive intensity is the perennial condition of all communities blessed with a republican police system; the resolution was to call attention to the fact that Terre Haute, with its gubernatorial constabulary, was a victim of an atrocious mob and no attempt was made to hinder it. Councilman Bauer said he gloried in the work of the mob and if he had been there he would have applied the match himself. Councilman Ehrman said he approved of the work of the Terre Haute avengers and Councilman Haag said he could not vote for the resolution as it stood. Councilman Hosey said the resolution smacked too much of the Limekiln club, and Councilman Clark said there was too much bloody shirt in it. When the roll was called and it was clearly seen that the resolution would be tabled, Councilman Hench withdrew it so that it would not become a matter of record. After the adjournment there was an extra session of the council in the clerk's office and the councilmen were busy explaining why they voted so and so and allowed two republican councilmen to whip them into a practical endorsement of the metropolitan police bill. The councilman from the eleventh ward talked a few paragraphs of plain English. He said: "You are cowards, every one of you! You are whipped and you are afraid to whimper. You are afraid of the police commission; you don't know who that commission will be, but you are afraid of it just the same. Most of you expect or hope to be a member of the board and those of you who don't have a pet policeman whom you want to protect and keep on the force and you are afraid to call your souls your own. That's all there is to it."

COUNCILMANIC ABSENTEES.

The meagre attendance at council meetings has been a source of much worriment to the mayor and has frequently been the occasion of considerable annoyance. On several occasions the council meetings had to be postponed for want of a quorum. The mayor says that those who have too much business of their own to give two nights in a month to their constituents should resign and give way to somebody that would be regular in attendance. Last year there were but twenty-five meetings of the council including special sessions and all. A glance over the records of attendance kept in the clerk's office will show the following record of absentees: Councilman Bauer missed two meetings; Borkenstein, five; Buhr, nine; Clark, seven; Eckert, two; Earman, six; Gerding, eleven; Haag, eight; Hayes, ten; Hench, one; Hosey, none; Lennart, two; McMahon, seven; Miller, eight; O'Ryan, nine; Scheid, two; Schuhler, three; Schwartz, two; White, two, and Zurbuch, one. It will be seen that four councilmen were absent at nearly half the sessions and only one attended all of them. The number of times councilmen were absent aggregates ninety-eight and as each councilman received an even six dollars for every meeting of the council during the year, it shows an exenditure of $588 for which no value was received. One of the councilmen received sixty-six dollars to which he was not entitled, if councilmanic services are calculated the same as the councilmen reckon the services of their employes. A man engaged in a shop must be present when the roll is called, or the checks are counted if he expects to be credited with his day's work. A man hired by the month can't expect to lay off two weeks and draw a full month's pay. But leaving the question of pay out of the question the voters rightly argue that the man whom they select and pay to represent them should be present at all the meetings of the body when possible and if his business is such as to prevent regular attendance he should resign. There is considerable merit in the argument, too.

DRYING PREPARATIONS simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Wheat ruled weak today under bear pressure and liquidation. Easy cables from Liverpool and sharp decline at Paris were factors. May opened a shade lower at 76⅛c to 76¼, declined to 75⅝@75⅝c and rallied to 76c on covering. The reaction brought most liberal offerings and the market again declined, this time dropping to 75½@75⅞c. Local receipts were 54 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 230 cars against 243 last week and 533 a year ago.

An improvement in the grade of corn receipts helped prices at the start. In today's receipts, 322 cars, there were 15 cars which were equal to contract requirements. May opened ⅛c lower at 40¾c to 40⅞c, but fell to 40½c under selling by longs and pressure from bears.

May oats opened a shade lower to unchanged at 25⅝@25¾c and sold off to 25⅜@25½c with the decline in corn. Receipts were 165 cars.

Provisions were dull. The market opened easier because of heavy hog receipts, was steady and practically unchanged for some time, there being little pressure to sell. May pork opened 5c lower at $14.02½; May lard unchanged at $7.47½, and May ribs 2½c down at $7.05.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Feb., 74⅜c; March, 74⅜c; May, 76⅛c.

Corn—Feb., 38⅞c; March, 39⅛c; May, 40¾c.

Oats—Feb., 24½c; May, 25½c.

Pork—Feb., $13.95; May, $14.15.

Lard—Feb., $7.45; March, $7.45; May, $7.52½; July, $7.55@7.57½; Sept., $7.62½@7.65.

Ribs—Feb., $7.05; May, $7.05½@7.10; Sept., $7.22½.

Flax—Cash No. 1, $1.61; May, $1.61¼.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts, 17,000; steers steady to slow; butchers' stock strong. Good to prime steers, $4.95@6.00; poor to medium, $3.40@4.90; stockers and feeders, $2.65@4.50; cows, $2.65@4.25; heifers, $2.65@4.50; canners, $2.00@2.60; bulls, $2.40@4.15; calves, $4.00@5.60; Texas fed steers, $4.00@4.90; Texas grass steers, $3.35@4.00; Texas bulls, $2.50@3.50.

Hogs—Receipts today, 42,000; tomorrow, 33,000; left over, 6,666; market generally 10c lower; top, $5.55. Mixed and butchers, $5.30@5.55; good to choice heavy, $5.45@5.55; rough heavy, $5.30@5.40; light, $5.30@5.50; bulk of sales, $5.40@5.50.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 27.—Price changes in the Steel stocks at the opening were generally small and divided between gains and losses, but the stocks fluctuated very uncertainly after the opening.

Federal Steel preferred opened wide at 88 to 88¼, compared with 87 last night. American Hoop was up a point, American Tin Plate was off a point. National Tube opened up a fraction and then dropped 1¼. The changes in the railroad list were small and mixed. General Electric fell 1¼.

Operations in the Steel stocks were confusing on efforts to affect relative values of the constituent companies to that of the new stock issue. Preferred stocks were bought and advanced from 1 to 2 points. Some of the common issues were supported, but others were liquidated. Steel and Wire falling to 40⅛ and National Tube losing 2½. The diverse movements unsettled other stocks and declines followed. Brooklyn Transit and Metropolitan Street Railway dipped sharply, and an opening gain of a point in St. Paul was more than wiped out.

Tobacco, after reacting to 120¼, was marked up to 122 and later yielded to near the lowest. All of the common steel stocks were then bid up about a point, which steadied the general market.

At 11 o'clock Sugar, Brooklyn Transit and the Steel stocks were being sold freely and ruling generally at the lowest.

Sugar and Brooklyn Transit suffered losses of 2¾ and 2¼ respectively before support appeared, and Steel and Wire, Tin Plate and Smelting were also especially weak. Large blocks of St. Paul were then bought on a rising scale up to 154½. Many good rallies were made in sympathy. Amalgamated Copper was in good demand and advanced 1¼.

Bonds were firm.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hardisty and Mrs. Crawford were pleasantly surprised at their country home last Saturday evening by a jolly sleigh load of their friends. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Potter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Moninger and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard, of Fort Wayne. Music and social diversions occupied the hours, the guests returning to their homes at a late hour.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

In Bullerman's court this morning Mrs. Christina Dunlap filed two affidavits against Mrs. Alice Dahnen for provoking her two sons, Arthur and Richard Dunlap. These lads were before Justice France last week charged with provoking Mrs. Dahnen and the evidence showed that their conduct was most atrocious. Justice France did not wish to send the little lads to jail, so he discharged them with an admonition. They became ugly again and it appears Mrs Dahnen retaliated and in consequence is herself in the toils.

The Washington Township Game Protective association has been instrumental in having affidavits filed against Louis White and Drice White for Sabbath desecration. The offense consisted in hunting on Sunday. The cases will be tried in France's court this afternoon.

TWO COMPANIES MAY CLASH

SOME INDICATIONS OF AN INTERURBAN WAR.

Dieterich Syndicate Has an Eye on Territory Pre-Empted by Southwestern—Murdock's Request.

Within the past day or two there have developed surface indications of a lively fight for the interurban right of way between this city and Lafayette. For the route between this city and Huntington a franchise is already held by the Fort Wayne Southwestern company, which has begun preparations to build its line, and it is now evident that the Dieterich syndicate, which has opened negotiations for the purchase of the Fort Wayne street railway, also desires a right of way through the same territory.

When Mr. Dieterich was in Fort Wayne Saturday he incidentally spoke favorably of a line along the tow path, continuing through to Lafayette and then to the coal fields, though the gentlemen disclaim any intention of fighting any other company. Mr. Dieterich went from this city to Lafayette. Tuesday James E. Murdock, of Lafayette, who is closely connected with the Dieterich interests, appeared before a committee of Huntington citizens and asked them to proceed slowly in the granting of franchises until Mr. Murdock and his associates could frame a petition setting forth their desires definitely. Concerning it the Huntington Herald says:

"Mr. Murdock briefly outlined the enterprise. He stated that the gentlemen interested were abundantly able to finace the scheme and were favorably inclined toward it. They had secured options on the Fort Wayne and Logansport street railways and were assured of an option on the Lafayette electric line. They had secured options on the canal property and within a month (possibly two weeks) would be able to meet the Huntington council and state their desires. They would ask no subsidy or donation. All they would desire would be a franchise through the city of Huntington, and would not expect any unreasonable concessions. The line would be a trunk line, with branches, one of which would be a line to Marion from Huntington, where it would be continued to Muncie and thence to Indianapolis, either over their own road or by connecting lines. "The only object of my visit,' said Mr. Murdock, 'is to request your council not to bind itself up by any franchise to any company within the time named—two to four weeks. By that time our people will know to a certainty what they intend to do, and we will not keep the matter uncertain long. When we conclude to build the work will be pushed rapidly and the road will be running in a short time. It will be first-class in every respect.'"

Mr. Murdock came to Fort Wayne last evening, held a brief conference with Henry C. Paul and left for Lima, Ohio.

COUNCIL DID NOT ACT.

The Huntington city council met last evening to act upon the proposition to reconsider the franchise recently granted the Fort Wayne and Southwestern company, and J. B. Kenner addressed the council in behalf of Mr. Murdock's request. The meeting adjourned, however, without taking any action to hold up the franchise and this is assumed to mean that the Southwestern's franchise will stand.

To a reporter at Huntington Mr. Murdock said:

"My company has $30,000,000 and it means business. It has been at work for the past three months making surveys in the Wabash valley and the gas belt. Its object is to construct an interurban electric railway system that will connect all the better towns in this part of Indiana. As has been published, our road will run from Fort Wayne to the coal fields. In Logansport, Lafayette and Fort Wayne we have been given assurances that our project will be met with high favor. We want no subsidies. All we ask of any city is fair business treatment in the matter of franchise. We would like to ask this as well as other cities to move cautiously and not tie their streets up so that other concerns cannot get in. We are not making war on the Fort Wayne and Southwestern or any other company—all we want is equitable treatment. We will use the tow path where it can be done conveniently, but will not use it if the company finds other routes more convenient. This matter will be closed up one way or another within thirty days."

TO SUCCEED VANDERLIP.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The president today nominated Milton E. Ailes, of Ohio, to be assistant secretary of the treasury, vice Frank Vanderlip, resigned.

Hon. Richard Harcourt, minister of education for Ontario, has announced that he will ask the legislature at the coming session to make a grant to establish traveling libraries throughout the rural sections of the province. Boxes of books containing twenty-five to fifty volumes will be put on the road, the only cost to the locality being that of transportation.

CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH

SCHEPER'S LAAGER IS TAKEN FROM THE BOERS.

Most of Boer Force Absent, But Forty Burghers Were Made Prisoners—Supplies Captured.

Port Isabel, Cape Colony, Feb. 27.—A private message received here says Scheper's laager, near Willowmore, has been captured by the British. The main body of Boers was absent, but forty burghers and the whole of the supplies were taken.

LARGE STORES CAPTURED.

London, Feb. 27.—General Kitchener, telegraphing from Middleburg (in the Transvaal on the railroad between Pretoria and Portuguese East Africa), under date of February 27, says:

"The following additional captures are reported by French up to February 25:

"Three hundred Boers, surrendered; a nineteen pounder Krupp, one howitzer, a Maxim, 20,000 rounds of small arms' ammunition, 153 rifles, 388 horses, 834 trek oxen, 5,600 cattle, 9,800 sheep and 287 wagons and carts.

"The Boers' casualties were four killed and five wounded."

PLAGUE IS SPREADING.

Cape Town, Feb. 27.—Seven fresh cases of bubonic plague were reported yesterday. Two of the victims are Europeans, a man and a woman. The dead body of a kaffir was found in a house near the Cathedral yesterday. In a majority of the cases the spread of the disease is traceable to rats.

The principal difficulty encountered by the authorities in their efforts to prevent the plague from spreading is the concealment by the colored people of its existence among them.

In consequence of the gravity of the bubonic plague situation the government has taken over from the corporation control of everything connected therewith and is engaging a large corps for a thorough cleansing of the city, the burning of undesirable houses and the destruction of rubbish.

REOPENS A DISCUSSION.

London, Feb. 27.—The war office selected the double anniversary of the battle of Majuba Hill and General Cronje's surrender to publish General Kelly-Kenny's dispatch to Lord Roberts dealing with the events immediately preceding the surrender at Paardeberg.

The dispatch contains no news, but it threatens to reopen the discussion regarding the responsibility for the attack on the Boer lines at Paardeberg, which proved so costly to the British.

Only last evening, in the house of commons, Mr. Broderick, the war secretary, said that General Kelly-Kenny was in command. Presumably he was, although his dispatch concludes as follows:

"Lord Kitchener, the chief of staff, was present all the time. In accordance with the instructions conveyed to me in your note of Feb. 17, I recognize his suggestions as conveying to me your lordship's orders, and acted thereon."

NOTES OF THE DAY.

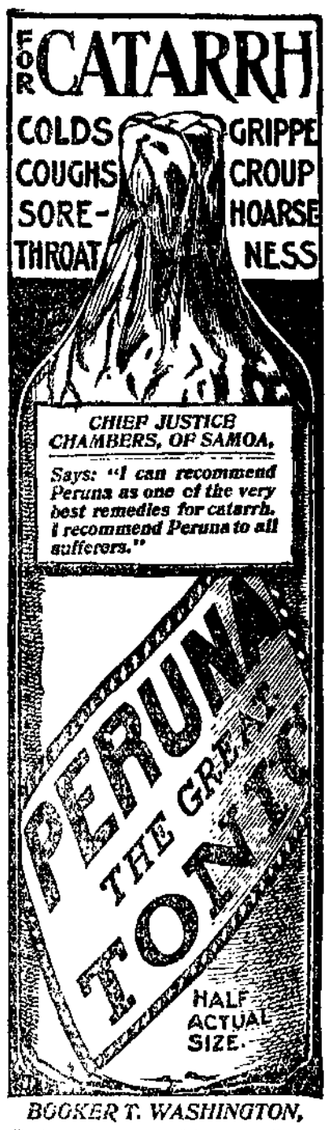

All cattle over six months old going from Great Britain to the United States must, by an order just issued, be tested with tuberculin by an inspector stationed in Great Britain, or on arrival in the United States. The test will not do away with quarantine.

In consequence of the increasing number of cases of chronic malaria in the neighborhood of Moscow, Professor Zograf made investigation of a most searching character, and he confirms the opinion of the English scientists that the disease is communicated by a certain kind of mosquito.

The number of suicides in Paris is very large at present and the chief cause is thought to be the general retrenchment following the exposition, which has thrown many people out of work. Throughout France, however, suicide seems to have been increasing for some time. In the five years ended January 1, 1901, the number of suicides was no less than 27,000.

Heavy storms have done a vast amount of damage to Coney Island this winter, and is looks as though the geography of the place will be woefully changed. Many buildings along the beach have been moved inland to escape the breakers.

SHOP AND RAIL

J. S. MAY RESIGNS HIS PANHANDLE POSITION.

GOES TO THE ALTON MARCH 1

RAILWAY OFFICIALS HAVE NOT ANNOUNCED SUCCESSOR.

SOME RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

MRS. MAY THAYER KILLED AT DUNKIRK, OHIO.

Supt. J. S. May, of the Richmond division of the Panhandle system, has tendered his resignation, the same to become effective March 1. It is understood that Mr. May has accepted a position with the Chicago and Alton. Mr. May is a fine railway man and his success in that line is due entirely to personal effort, he being without the "push" which is sometimes so effective in boosting incompetent men to places of responsibility in the railway service. Concerning Mr. May the Columbus Dispatch says: "Mr. May has the enviable record of having risen from brakeman to superintendent. He accepted a position with the Panhandle company in 1879 and has been in their employ ever since. From freight brakeman he was promoted to freight conductor and after a few years' service was made passenger conductor, which position he held until 1896, when he was promoted to superintendent of the Richmond division of the Panhandle. When the C. A. & C. was acquired by the Pennsylvania company he was spoken of for the position of general superintendent of that road, but the powers that be ruled that it should be otherwise. At that time the abandonment of the Richmond division was talked of but nothing was done in the matter. When asked as to the future of the division the officials said that there was no truth in the report that the Richmond division was to become a part of the Logansport division or any other division, but that Mr. May's successor had not been announced."

RATES FOR SPECIAL CARS.

The Pullman company has issued a circular giving new rates to private parties for sleeping car service. It is announced that the company will furnish meals, either for private or buffet, sleeping or dining cars, charging only for the cost of supplies, with an additional 20 per cent added to cover handling, condemnation, etc. Private cars may be chartered at $50 per day for fewer than thirty days. The rate for a sleeping car will be $45, and for buffet sleepers $50, a reduction of $5 per day being allowed when used thirty days or over, and when chartered for a period of over ninety days the per diem will be $35. Compartment cars will be $50 per day for fewer than thirty days, and $35 for over ninety days. The charge for a special train, consisting of one compartment, one sleeping, one dining and one observation car, will be $215 per day.

KILLED ON STREET CROSSING.

Westbound fast train No. 21, on the Pittsburg road, struck and killed Mrs. May Thayer upon a street crossing in the town of Dunkirk, Ohio, this morning. The unfortunate lady miscalculated the distance and the speed of the train and attempted to cross the tracks ahead of it, although the usual warning was given.

BIG DEMAND FOR DYNAMOS.

The coming of warmer weather has been accompanied by an increase in orders for dynamos and electric supplies upon the shipping department of the Fort Wayne Electric works. The company is about to commence the installation of a lighting plant at Waynesville, Ohio, and today loaded for shipment to that place a 1,500-light alternating dynamo, a number of arc lights and all the station equipment material. The company also sent a thirty-horse power motor to Hooven, Owen & Rentchler, of Hamilton, Ohio.

LARGEST ORDER FOR ENGINES.

The Baltimore and Ohio company has established a new record in the way of ordering equipment. This week orders for 105 locomotives, which will cost about $1,300,000, were placed by that company. This is in addition to two other orders, one calling for 100 engines and the other for twenty-five, making a total cost of about $2,070,000, which will come out of the $25,000,000 improvement fund established a short time after the reorganizaton of the road. The engines are of all classes. The freight engines will be of the Wooten type, with wide fire boxes on trailng wheels, and the cabs set on top of the boilers. The passenger engines will be of the Atlantic type, built for fast running.

LEAVES SHOP FOR FARM.

MR. RAMSEY DENIES REPORT.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 27.—Joseph Ramsey, jr., vice president and general manager of the Wabash railroad, today denied the report that he had confirmed a statement that the Wabash was to enter Pittsburg.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Boiler Foreman James Murray, of the Wabash, made a business trip to Peru yesterday.

Nickel Plate Conductor G. B. McCormick is off duty on account of sickness in his family.

E. M. Powers, the Kansas City representative of Powers & Barnett, the 'bus company, is in the city.

Boilermaker Fred Rehling, of the Wabash shops, was taken sick this morning and had to return home.

J. C. Walters, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, was in the city today.

Ed Gephard, who was injured by a fall a few days ago, resumed work in the Wabash boiler shop this morning.

J. Callihan and A. Shannon, who had been sick, resumed their duties in the Pittsburg roundhouse this morning.

Engineer W. Slagle and Firemen D. Baltzell, W. H. Wyman and G. K. Homan, of the Pittsburg, are sick and off duty.

Thomas McGuire, Grand Rapids engineer, is taking a vacation, and Engineer P. Lupton has his place at the throttle.

W. F. Mailand resumed work in the Pittsburg lumber yards this morning. A few days ago he had one of his hands injured.

The Pennsylvania limited was over an hour late in reaching Fort Wayne this morning. The delay was caused east of Crestline.

Claude Moore, a painter at the Pittsburg shops, is on duty again. For two weeks he was confined to his home by the grip.

Two more car loads of steel for the superstructure of the electric building arrived last night, making six car loads so far received.

One of the Nickel Plate's new dining cars is expected here in a few days. It will run on Nos. 2 and 4 between this city and Chicago.

Conductor C. D. Snyder and Brakemen J. H. Kepler and G. Hartwick compose a new freight crew on the third district of the Nickel Plate.

Road Foreman of Engines C. R. Colmey is at his office again, after being confined a few days by the grip. He still suffers from the malady.

P. C. Cunningham, boilermaker at the Wabash shops, has returned from Peru, where he attended the funeral of his brother, Edward Cunningham.

Foreman B. F. Sarver, who has been quite sick for a few weeks, was able to resume charge of affairs at the Pittsburg boiler shop this morning.

The large trip hammer in the Bass blacksmith shop, which was broken some weeks ago, has been repaired and will be put in operation in a day or two.

Capt. R. H. Harrison, ex-foreman of the car machine department of the Pittsburg shops, is reported better today. He has been quite sick for several days.

V. Schroyer, L. O. Starr, J. Richards and F. M. Shambaugh are sick and off duty, and H. E. Overly is off to attend to some private business. They are Pittsburg employes.

J. P. Shoemaker, traveling auditor of the Adams Express company, was here yesterday on business with Local Agent George E. Becker. Mr. Shoemaker resides in Columbus, Ohio.

N. J. Eichhorn, machinist, has returned from Cleveland, where he attended a family reunion which was remarkable in some particulars. There were twenty-six persons sur-

The Wabash earnings for the third week of February amounted to $326,303.17, showing an increase of $22,730.13; from the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, to date, $11,570,454.41; increase, $695,468.71.

Walter Newman, a tinsmith; James Bradbury, boilermaker's helper, and Orian Somers, laborer in the machine shop, quit the employ of the Wabash company this morning. With the exception of Mr. Newman these men were recent additions to the shop force.

WHAT SAMPSON SAYS.

Boston, Feb. 27.—Rear Admiral Sampson, referring to his letter to the navy department, relating to the commissioning of warrant officers, said that he had expressed his views solely in the interest of the service as he had come to know it and appreciate its requirements after a life time of duty aboard ship and ashore. "The letter was an official communication," he said. "As an officer in the navy I am forbidden by the regulations to discuss it in any way for publication."

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free on stomach troubles, by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

OFFICIAL COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne met in the Council Chamber Tuesday evening, February 26, A. D., 1901, in regular session, His Honor, Mayor Scherer, in the chair, and H. B. Monnieg, Clerk, at the desk, and present the following members, 15, viz.:

Bauer, Berkenstein, Clark, Ehrman, Haag, Hayes, Heuch, Hosey, Lennart, McMahon, Miller, O'Ryan, Scheid, Schuhler and Zurbuch.

Absent, 5, viz.. Councilmen Buhr, Eckert, Gerding, Schwartz and White.

The minutes of the last regular session having been delivered to the councilmen were, on motion, approved as published.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.

Gentlemen: The two tests made at north side pumping station with compressed air showed, under the first test with five (5) rock wells connected, an average daily pumpage of one million, three hundred and eighty-five thousand, four hundred and eighty-five (1,385,485) gallons, while the second test with ten (10) wells connected, showed an average pumpage of two million, two hundred and twenty-two thousand, two hundred and nine (2,222,209) gallons.

The trustees have decided to have plans and specifications prepared for the installment of a permanent plant of this character, after which proposals will be received for the carrying on of this work. With the installment of this plant, we wish to call your attention to the fact, that if either of the pumping engines should become disabled from any cause, the city would be entirely without fire protection and with but an insufficient supply of water for domestic purposes. For this reason we wish to urge the necessity of purchasing another pumping engine for station No. 2. This is a very important matter and should be taken up for consideration without further delay.

During the past year the average pumpage was over four million (4,000,000) gallons per day or about ninety (90) gallons per capita, which is entirely too much and proves beyond doubt that there must be a large waste of water, and the best and only way to remedy this is by the adoption of a meter system. If the meter system is adopted, the water rent can be reduced at least one-third, while the consumption of water will be reduced far beyond that, and the revenue from this department increased under the above conditions. We have no hesitancy in saying this system must be adopted if we expect a supply of water from wells for our city.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. TAGTMEYER,
WM. HAGUGH,
P. J. SINGLETON,
Trustees Water Works.

Referred to committee of the whole.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 26, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: We, your committee on finance, respectfully report that we have carefully examined all the books, vouchers, coupons, bonds and receipts in the comptroller's office and compared them with the vouchers in the department of public works, safety, finance and health, and find them to agree with the books and annual reports submitted to this council.

SMALL BANKS CLOSE.

Ashley, Ill., Feb. 26.—The Centennial bank, a private institution here, of which Edmund Palmer, of Chicago, is president, failed to open for business today. The deposits are said to aggregate $36,000. Cashier Offil, the only official of the bank here, has not made any statement, but it is reported the closing of the bank was due to the closing of a bank at Desplaines in which President Palmer was interested.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The private bank of Palmer & Mayor, at Desplaines, a village twelve miles from Chicago, has closed its doors. The institution is said to have held deposits aggregating $36,000, of which $6,000 was village funds. Experiments with liquid air are said to have caused the trouble.

TROUBLE WITH SIOUX FEARED.

Fort Yates, N. D., Feb. 27.—Reports of unrest among the Sioux Indians, circulated a fortnight since, have been accentuated here by the rumor that several persons have been warned of plans for an outbreak of some sort on July 4, when the Indians gather at the various agencies to participate in games. It is claimed by the Indians that they have been unable to secure a complete and satisfactory statement from the department at Washington of the money due them on sales of lands ceded under the treaty of 1889, and to this fact is said to be due the present feeling of dissatisfaction.

J. K. ROSS HELD UNDER BOND

COMMISSIONER LOGAN'S RULING IN THE BEER CASE.

Holds It a Violation of the Statutes —Harry Snow is Not Prompt About Appearing.

United States Commissioner Logan today rendered his decision in the case against Judson K. Ross, who was accused of violation of the internal revenue laws by selling beer to Italian laborers without having paid the special tax. Mr. Logan's decision brings Ross' action within the intent of the law, and Ross was held under bond of $300 to the United States grand jury.

The facts as adduced at the preliminary hearing were that during the summer of 1900 Ross was engaged in business as a retail grocer; that in the rear of his place of business was a dwelling occupied by about twenty-five Italian laborers upon the intercepting sewer; that Ross purchased from Fred Helling a number of cases of beer which were disposed of to the Italians; that Ross had no barroom, and that he was not authorized by the government to carry on the business of a retail liquor dealer.

J. B. Harper, counsel for the defendant, set up the defense that if such sales were made, the defendant received no profit therefrom; that it was done as a matter of accommodation; that it was not the intention to sell beer to any one who applied for it, but was restricted to the aforesaid Italians, and that the defendant did not intend to violate any law regarding the sale of liquors.

In the finding Commissioner Logan laid down as a rule of law the following: "Whe[illegible] the case, either by [illegible] from a manufacturer of beer o[illegible] wise, with the intention of [illegible] of it, not to every one who may apply for it, but to a particular individual or class of individuals, and afterwards does dispose of it by selling to some particular class, club or organization according to his preconceived intention, without profit to himself in the transaction, influence, perhaps, to sell in the spirit of accommodation, is, nevertheless, under the law a retail dealer in malt liquors and amenable to section 3242, of the Revised Statutes of the United States."

FINAL HEARINGS.

The United States court has fixed March 22 as the date for the final hearings in the bankruptcy actions of David E. Studebaker and Albert A. Nichols, of Decatur, and Frank E. Glaser, of this city.

MR. SNOW IS SLOW.

This was the day set for the hearing of the charge against Harry Snow for selling liquor without the formality of getting a government license. Mr. Snow is the Columbia street saloonist whose woes of various kinds have been pretty thoroughly aired in the courts during the past few weeks. Mr. Snow was arrested a week ago and placed under his personal recognizance in the sum of $300 for appearance before the United States commissioner today for preliminary hearing. The court was in readiness to hear the case, but Deputy Marshal Rose was unable to find his man. It was learned that Snow went to Lima yesterday on business, and stated that he would return today. He had not put in an appearance up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, and unless he turns up by 4 o'clock, the court will probably declare his bond defaulted. And this will mean another variety of trouble for Mr. Snow.

NOTED CLERGYMAN DEAD.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 27.—Rev. Robert Alexander, D. D., a widely known Presbyterian clergyman and editor of the Presbyterian, died at his home here today after an illness of five weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Rev. Dr. Alexander was born in Belmont county, O., in 1837.

Dr. E. F. Sites is having drawings prepared for a handsome residence which he will erect on West Wayne street this summer.

Miss Aldie Larimore, of Auburn, has returned home after a visit with her sister in this city.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday

Will be your last chance to take advantage of our mosi liberal offer which has been extended from last week. Remember we place on sale and offer

Our elegant line of double convex; also periscopic convex glasses, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, absolutely free to each any every customer that will mention this advertisement. We furnish and adjust these glasses free of charge. The frames will cost you but a trifle. Our frames range in prices as follows:

Steel Frame, from 25c up. Aluminum Frame, from 75c up.
Nickel Frame, from 35c up. Solid Gold Frame, from $2.50 up.

Each frame or case will have our name stamped thereon as a guarantee that if these glasses need changing at any time within five years we will exchange them free of charge. This is no sensational offer, but we are determined to get this glass readily introduced on the market, also our perfection in fitting the eye. Knowing that the introduction of a single pair is the most valuable advertisement and will certainly lead to the sales of others, is why we make this most liberal offer, and trust that all in need of glasses will avail themselves of this rare opportunity IN SPECIAL CASES lenses have to be ground to correct errors or refraction. We are fully prepared and thoroughly understand the correction for weak eyes, near sight, far sight, old sight, astigmatism, etc. When necessary our lenses are ground accurately and scientifically for any defective vision, and should such be necessary that a glass will have to be ground to order, our prices on this work will be reasonable. Remember we are the only one in eastern Indiana who make the fitting of glasses a specialty, and are the only ones who handle this glass, which we generally retail from $2.50 to $3.00, according to the size. However, these lenses will cost you only the asking during this special sale. Call and early and kindly mention this inducement to your friends. If possible, call in the forenoon; in the afternoon we are generally busy.

BELL LOSES SUIT

DECISION GIVEN IN FAMOUS BERLINER CASE.

IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

DECISION GIVEN IN UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

JUDGE TAYLOR OF COUNSEL

FORT WAYNE LAWYER TALKS OF THE FAMOUS SUIT.

Boston, Feb. 27.—Judge Brown, of the United States circuit court, has decided against the American Bell Telephone company in the famous Berliner patent case.

The suits were the Bell company against the National Telephone company and same against the Century Telephone company, brought to restrain respondents from selling, using or making telephones or telephonic apparatus with the microphone attachment and to account to the Bell company for past use, manufacture and sales, upon the ground that such use, manufacture or sale was an infringement of patent.

The cases were argued before Judge Brown a year and a half ago and as they related to the same patent—the microphone—were put in together and were tried as if they were one case.

The Berliner patent is considered one of the most important held by the Bell company and does not expire until Nov. 17, 1908.

The patent is the same one that has been before the courts in the United States vs. Bell Telephone company and it was held that the patent was not invalid on account of delay at the patent office.

The whole case turns upon the validity of this patent, the defense setting up, among other things, the invalidity of the patent, its lack of invention, anticipation and non-patentability.

It is understood that an appeal will be made from the decision and that it will be carried to the United States supreme court upon this appeal.

JUDGE R. S. TAYLOR TALKS.

Judge Robert S. Taylor, of this city, has been of chief counsel for the Berliner interests in the famous suits against the Bell monopoly and is probably more familar with the legal as well as technical details of the case than any other man in the United States. Judge Taylor was exceedingly gratified to receive news of the decision today. He consented to make the following statement for The Sentinel:

"The decision made in Boston today is in two suits brought by the Bell Telephone company against independent manufacturers of telephones upon patent granted to Emile Berliner Nov. 17, 1891. The patent covers, in the broadest terms, what is known as the microphone—a form of telephone transmitter in universal use. It differs from the form of transmitter invented by Bell and described in his patent of 1876 and in an improved form in his patent of 1877.

"The microphone was introduced into use as the invention of Thomas A. Edison in 1878. During that year an interference in the patent office, to which there was a great number of parties, disclosed the fact that Emile Berliner had in the office an application filed in June, 1877, in which could be perceived by the Bell Company's experts some suggestions which, by suitable alteration and expansion, could be made to cover the idea of the microphone. The Bell company bought the application; changed it so as to make it describe the microphone; then kept it in the patent office until 1891, when it took out the present patent.

"I do not know of any successful transmitter in use which does not come within the terms of this patent. It does not expire until 1908. The hope of the Bell company has been to perpetuate its monopoly by means of this patent. It is undoubtedly being infringed by hundreds of thousands of telephones in daily use in independent exchanges.

"If the patent had been sustained, the consternation and confusion which would have been created would have been without precedent in the history of the country. Of course, the defendants would have appealed and it would have been a year or more before the final decision could have been had in the court of appeals in that circuit. And then the question would have been open to litigation in the other circuits, so that the independent companies would not have been prepared to give up, even if they had lost this case on this trial. But it would have been a great set-back to them beyond all doubt.

"I am advised by my associate that the opinion of the court sustains the first, second, third, fourth and fifth defenses completely. Such a decision destroys the patent root and branch.

MR. SALE NOTIFIED.

Another telegram announcing the court's decision was received today by John W. Sale from one of the principal attorneys in the case. Mr. Sale is prominently connected with the National and other independent lines in Indiana, and seemed highly gratified at the outcome of the protracted litigation. He does not believe the Bell company will appeal the case.

WALSH FIRED A FUSILADE

MAN FROM FORT WAYNE INSANE AT WARSAW.

Imagines Enemies are Pursuing Him —Friends Have Gone to Take Him in Charge.

Readers of The Sentinel are probably familiar with the circumstances of a fight which occurred several weeks ago between a man named Fogge, employed on the intercepting sewer, and the foreman of the work, named Patrick, better known as "Paddy" Welch. During the melee Fogge hit Welch several terrific belts on the head with a pick handle and it was several days before he could appear in court to prosecute the case. Fogge was fined and Welch returned to work as usual. Recently, however, he has complained of pains in his head and was possessed of a hallucination that somebody was after him to kill him. He quit work several days last week and was closely looked after by his friends, who readily saw that he was slightly off his mental balance. By yesterday he had recovered apparently sufficiently to undertake a trip to his home in Chicago, where his family resides. He purchased a ticket and bade his brother and other friends good-by at the Nickel Plate depot when he took the noon train going west. It appears that he left the train at Claypool and hired a horse and buggy with which he drove across the country to Warsaw.

At Warsaw he did business for a few minutes on an extended scale. He insisted that some one was after him and he proceeded to do some shooting to protect himself. Fortunately he did not shoot at any one in particular and although about thirty shots were fired no one was hit. He was overpowered and disarmed and evidently squared himself in some way and was released. Early this morning he took his rig and started back to Claypool, and in the meantime the authorities at Claypool were apprised of his coming. It was known, how, does not appear, that he was from Fort Wayne and worked on the sewer here, and the contractor here was notified as were the Nickel Plate officials. Walsh's brother, who is also in the employ of Contractor Peters, and Detective Wilkinson left for Claypool on the noon train and will take charge of the demented man on their arrival there.

Whether he is seriously demented or not is not known, neither is it known what will be done with him. The particulars are very meager and information which has reached here may also be exaggerated.

BROKE BOTH ARMS.

Mrs. Harber, a widow residing at 97 John street, met with a most painful accident yesterday afternoon. While walking on the sidewalk near her home she slipped on the ice and fell, breaking both arms. She was carried home by several persons who witnessed the accident, and Dr. A. J. Kesler attended her.

PETTIGREW RENEWS FIGHT ON PHILIPPINE BILL.

CHARGES AGAINST HEISTAND

ARMY OFFICER CONCERNED IN A PHILIPPINE JOB.

WANTED TO CORNER HEMP

DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 27—Senator Pettigrew today, in the course of his remarks during the debate of the Philippine amendment to the army bill, read letters and papers concerning the connection of Lieutenant Colonel Heistand, of the adjutant general's department, with a proposed company to control the hemp product of the islands. He read the charges made by Major Hawkes against Heistand and others in the war department.

TO INCLUDE ABSENT PAPER.

At the opening of today's session of the senate Mr. Lodge favorably reported from the committee on Philippines Mr. Pettigrew's resolution ordering a reprint of the instructions and papers sent to the Paris peace commission so as to include an important telegram which had been omitted from the original print. Mr. Lodge said the omitted telegram had been sent to the public printer with the other papers, but he could not say why it had not appeared in its proper place.

The resolution was adopted.

A joint resolution conferring authority upon the commissioners of the District of Columbia to provide for the public comfort during the approaching inaugural ceremonies was adopted.

A conference report upon the bill authorizing Pima county, Arizona, to issue fifty 4 per cent. bonds to redeem certain indebtedness was presented, but went over until tomorrow.

Mr. Perkins presented the conference report upon the fortification appropriation bill, and it was agreed to.

Mr. Teller, of Colorado, discussed the two controverted questions—the Philippine and Cuban amendments. He regarded the Philippine amendments much improved by the amendment offered by Mr. Hoar, but to his mind it still was objectionable. The Cuban amendment was much stronger and much better than the public press had conveyed the impression it would be, but he had some reservations in his approval of it.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Immediately after the approval of the journal the house, upon motion of Mr. Payne, the majority leader, agreed that for the remainder of the session the house meet at 11 o'clock, instead of at noon as heretofore.

The speaker's table was cleared of some minor business and Mr. Hull, of Iowa, then called up the conference report upon the military academy appropriation bill. It was the same report previously agreed to, but rejected by the senate on account of the provision against hazing, which had been modified.

Mr. Hull commended the compromise which had been reached and expressed the opinion that if the report was rejected the bill would fail.

Mr. McCall, of Mississippi, said he was willing to accept the compromise if no stronger provision against hazing could be procured.

Mr. Dick, of Ohio, chairman of the special committee which investigated the case of Oscar L. Boer, gave it as his opinion that the compromise contained in the conference report was the only legislation which could be enacted into law during this congress.

After some further remarks by Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa; Mr. Smith, of Iowa, and Mr. Driggs, of New York, the report was adopted without division.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The senate committee on foreign relations today decided to make no further effort to secure action upon the various reciprocity treaties before the senate during the present session.

The question was thoroughly canvassed. All the senators present agreed that in the present condition of business it would be impossible to secure action upon the treaties during the few days left of the session. Senator Perkins has indicated unalterable opposition to the Jamican treaty and other senators oppose all the treaties on principle.

There would be a desire for general debate if the question should be brought to the front at all, and for this reason the committee considers that it would be a waste of very precious time to take the question up now.

Senator Cullom today gave notice of an amendment he will propose to the sundry civil appropriation bill providing for a revenue cutter for Hawaiian waters at a cost not to exceed $250,000.

A resolution was today introduced in the senate by Senator Allen instructing the secretary of the navy to send to the senate copies of the letter of Gunner Morgan to Admiral Sampson requesting the latter's endorsement of his application for promotion and of the admiral's comment upon it. The resolution went over until tomorrow.

AGREE ON REVENUE ACT.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The republican conferees on the revenue reduction bill have reached an agreement on many of the items in controversy, in addition to those on beer, tobacco, bank checks and medicines, heretofore given.

The house provision repealing the tax on insurance policies, life and fire, are retained. The senate provision regarding conveyances of real estate, etc., are preferred over those of the house, which made a complete repeal of all taxes on conveyances.

The senate provision exempts conveyances under $2,500 and imposes a tax of twenty-five cents for each $500 over $2,500.

The numerous special taxes on theaters, circuses and exhibitions are taken off, as provided by the house. Beside the compromise of 9.60 cents on tobacco, the cigar rates come in for much discussion. But owing to some question as to the rights of the conferees over this item, the rate on cigars probably will remain at $3 per thousand. The understanding thus far reached is looked upon as likely to be final, although the conferees themselves say that no final agreement had been arrived at and it will not be until the democratic conferees are called in that an agreement can be made.

In the meantime the republican members are continuing their meetings on the various items still open, with the prospect that a complete adjustment is not far off.

A STONE WALL COLLAPSES

FOUR LABORERS BURIED IN NEW YORK.

Two Were Killed and Two More Were Badly Hurt—Were Excavating for a Building.

New York, Feb. 27.—A ten-foot stone wall, erected in an excavation at 333 West Nineteenth street, for a new building, caved in today. Four Italian laborers were buried under the wall when it fell. Two were killed and two badly hurt.

One of the dead men was named Calab.

The other has not been identified. The injured are Stefano Giolidato and Francisco Timmerene. Giolidato was buried in the stone and mortar up to the waist and a hospital surgeon administered stimulants to him while firemen and laborers dug to get him free. It took half an hour's work to get him out. He was taken to a hospital.

AN ARISTOCRATIC MARRIAGE.

London, Feb. 27.—Hon. Claude Anson, a brother of the earl of Lichfield, was married to Lady Clodagh De La Pore Beresford, a sister of the marquis of Waterford, in London, today. The marquis of Waterford gave the bride away. The bridegroom passed some years on a ranch in Texas.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE SYSTEM.

Port Clinton, Ohio, Feb. 27.—The Lakeside, Napoleon and Western electric railway was organized here yesterday. The road is backed by eastern capital and will run from Napoleon to Bowling Green and Fremont, thence to Port Clinton, Lakeside, Piccolo and Marblehead. The route will be fifty miles in length.

TO REORGANIZE POLICE.

St. Louis, Feb. 27.—The new board of police commissioners has chosen Capt. Matthew Keilly to be chief of police, vice John W. Campbell. Mr. Campbell will be given a captaincy. The police department will be reorganized at once.

DECLINE TO PARTICIPATE

DISSATISFIED WITH PLACE IN LINE OF MARCH.

DECISION IS REACHED TODAY

GENERAL SICKLES RETIRES AS VETERANS' MARSHAL.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Veteran organizations of the civil and Spanish wars have officially declined to participate in the inaugural parade on March 4.

The decision affects organizations in the Grand Army of the Republic, the Union Veteran Legion and the Spanish War Veterans. The dissatisfaction of the veterans with the place assigned them in the parade is responsible for today's action. It was their wish to act as the personal escort to the president.

Grand Marshal Green, on the contrary, assigned them to a position in the line ahead of the civic organizations and following the National Guards.

Gen. Daniel Sickles today notified General Green that the veterans had declined to participate in the parade and he tendered his resignation as marshal of the veteran division.

WILDMAN'S LAST REPORT.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The last mail report of the late United States Consul General Wildman received by the bureau of foreign commerce, state department, has been made public. The report is dated at Hong Kong, December 27, and is taken up chiefly with statements to show that American agricultural machinery is not wanted among the farmers of China. He also calls attention to the utter uselessness of mailing trade papers devoted to the carriage and harness industry to the consulate, saying wittingly that he already had mentioned the fact that "we have but three carriages and a hearse here, all of which are in a fair state of preservation." He advises carriage manufacturers to turn their attention to Manila, which, he says, is alive with carriages of every description, and where the demand will increase from year to year as the roads improve.

WANT POLICE PROSECUTED.

Oporto, Feb. 27.—At meetings of the council of the industrial institute and the students today it was resolved to request the government to prosecute the police who abused their authority repecting students' bands. The students and others afterwards paraded through several streets and gathered in front of the residence of the Brazilian consul, cheering for liberty and denouncing the clericals. The mob stoned the Catholic association's building and made a demonstration in front of the offices of the liberal newspapers, shouting "Long live liberty." Mounted and dismounted police then charged on the manifestants and dispersed them. Numbers of persons were injured, four of them so seriously that they had to be removed to a hospital.

THE MANCHESTER CASE.

London, Feb. 27.—In the court of king's bench today the case of Sanguinetto against the duke of Manchester was again postponed owing to the duke's absence in America. The plaintiff seeks to recover £500 commission for procuring the duke a loan of £10,000. The defense pleads that the terms of the loan are unreasonable. Plaintiff's counsel opposed the postponement, saying the defendant being a duke and enjoying an extended honeymoon in America was no reason his creditors should suffer. Justice Bigham, recalling the fact that there was a lady in the case appealed to him very strongly, granted the postponement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 27.—The announcement was made today that the American Sheet Steel company had advanced all guages of sheet steel $4 per ton.

PREPARE FOR ENCAMPMENT.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 27.—At a meeting yesterday of the local committee having in charge the arrangements for entertaining visitors to the national G. A. R. encampment to be held in Cleveland this year, Ryerson Ritchie was elected director and E. W. Doty secretary. These officials will establish headquarters at 407 Chamber of Commerce building, where any inquiries concerning the encampment should be sent.

M'KINLEY DENIES STORY.

Washington, Feb. 27.—An authoritative denial is given at the white house to an alleged interview with President McKinley, printed in the Manchester (England) Guardian and circulated in this country. The language attributed to the president is as follows: "The thirst of Christendom for blood must now be considered sufficently slacked after taking at least 100 lives for every Christian slaughtered."

SEARCHING FOR THEIR BOY

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SCHUSTER ARE MUCH ALARMED.

Seven-Year-Old Followed a Runaway Team Monday and Has Not Been Seen Since.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schuster, who reside on the New Haven road, where the old toll gate was formerly located, are greatly disturbed over the disappearance of their son, Frank, aged 7 years. Last Monday the lad followed a runaway team, which passed east over that thoroughfare, and that was the last seen of him. Mr. Schuster says the boy was well acquainted with the children of the farmers and market gardeners living in that neighborhood, and it was supposed that he had stopped at one of the houses thereabouts. But a search failed to reveal any trace of him. An additional cause for worry is that Frank left the house without his overcoat or winter wraps and was clothed only in an ordinary suit. The parents fear he may suffer from the cold. Mr. Schuster is employed in the Pittsburg machine shop.

ZUNI INDIANS STARVING.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 27.—An appeal has been sent to the department of the interior at Washington for aid for the suffering Zuni Indians in northeastern Arizona and northwestern New Mexico. A representative from Apache county says a portion of the tribe near Rohmah is in a fearful condition from lack of food and clothing. Rations at the agency are totally inadequate and whites have been contributing supplies. Last summer's drought destroyed the Zuni crops and the Indians traded nearly all their blankets and clothing for food. As a result the unusually severe winter has caused much sickness and deaths.

TO PUNISH KIDNAPERS.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 27.—Among the bills introduced in the senate today was one prepared by Judge Thayer, of Philadelphia, making the crime of kidnaping and abduction, for the purpose of extorting money, a felony, and fixing the penalty like that of murder of the first degree. The passage of the bill will be expedited.

KILLED WIFE AND SUICIDED.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 27.—Dr. W. F. Aiken, an eye and ear specialist, today killed his wife with a revolver and then committed suicide. Dr. Aiken was a native of New Bedford, Mass. He came to Savannah fourteen years ago from New York. It is supposed his mind was temporarily deranged.

BANK ROBBERS FOILED.

Youngstown, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Four masked men tried to rob the Farmers' National bank at Canfield, ten miles from here, early this morning. Explosions in attempting to open the safe aroused the citizens and the would-be bank robbers sought safety in flight. They had a team and light wagon and were pursued several miles in the direction of Salem.

CROKER WILL RETURN.

London, Feb. 27.—Richard Croker says he will return to America in good time to take part in the coming campaign.

EIGHT BODIES RECOVERED.

Kemmerer, Wyo., Feb. 27.—Eight bodies were recovered today from the Diamondville mine where thirty-two men perished in Monday's fire. Fire damp finally drove out the searchers and it is probable no more bodies will be recovered for several days.

HEADS COME OFF

TWO CHINESE OFFENDERS ARE EXECUTED.

PUBLIC SEES THE SPECTACLE

MANY THOUSANDS GATHERED IN PEKIN.

DIGNITY MARKED CONDEMNED

MINISTERS DID NOT ATTEND THE EXECUTIONS.

Pekin, Feb. 27.—A crowd of fully 10,000 persons witnessed the execution of Chih Hsu and Hsu Cheng Yu, who were beheaded here today in accordance with the demands of the powers.

The members of the various legations were conspicuously absent, feeling that if they were present they might seem to be gloating over their fallen adversaries. Every power, however, was largely represented by military officials and soldiers and there was also present a staff from each of the foreign powers. Besides these many missionaries witnessed the executions.

The condemned men met death stoically. In each case one blow severed the head from the body.

At the time the execution was being carried out the ministers held a meeting and determined on the present majority to draw a curtain over further demands for blood.

FAVOR HUMANE METHODS.

United States Special Commissioner Rockhill sided strongly with those favoring humane methods, who are Sir Ernest Satow, and Mr. Komura, Cologan and DeGeirs, respectively British, Japanese, Spanish and Russian ministers. Others believe that China has not been sufficiently punished and that men should be executed in every city, town and village where foreigners were injured.

The minority is composed of those who were not here during the siege in addition to Dr. Mumm Von Schwarzenstein, the German minister, while those who were besieged here are of a more peaceable frame of mind, including M. DeGeirs and Senor De Cologan, both of whom are of the opinion that it is a mistake to let those who had suffered like the besieged ministers did to conduct the peace negotiations with the Chinese.

DONE WITH BLOODSHED.

However, it is safe to say that little more bloodshed will be demanded. Another important point that was brought up at the meeting was that of the legation quarters. Mr. Rockhill impressed the ministers by his remarks regarding the protest of Sir Robert Hart, chief of the Chinese imperial maritime customs, against the seizure of his property to increase the area of the legations, saying that the services rendered the powers by the financial representative of China should have prevented the indignities and spoliation inflicted. The feeling is general that Italy should recede from her position and return the property she has taken and that if necessary for her to increase her legation she should take land elsewhere.

Dr. Mumm Von Schwarzenstein, the German minister, and the Marquis Salbago Raggi, the Italian representative, expressed high appreciation of Sir Robert Hart, and regretted that matters of state made necessary the taking of lands of the customs official.

Sir Ernest Satow and Mr. Rockhill thought an exception should certainly be made of Sir Robert Hart's personal property and that the limits of the legation should be defined the same as published.

Reports from the Shen Si province show that suffering due to the famine there is increasing.

APPROVED AT BERLIN.

Berlin, Feb. 27.—It is an open secret in Berlin that the declaration made by the United States to the foreign office against the land grabbing of foreign powers in China and in favor of awaiting the joint action of all the powers concerned, and then taking simply what land is necessary for diplomatic purposes, was especially well received by Baron Von Richthoffen, secretary of foreign affairs, when Ambassador White presented the subject, and that the imperial government, after a full discussion of the American declaration and proposal, returned to the United States embassy in writing a cordial acceptance thereof.

PETTIGREW PREPARING TO FLAY M'KINLEY.

TO GAIN POWER IN CUBA

IS CHARGED WITH BRIBERY OF CONGRESS.

IS LOADED WITH THE FACTS

WILL CITE RECORDS TO SHOW SURRENDER TO CONGRESS.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—The Times-Herald prints the following special from Washington by its correspondent, Walter Wellman:

President McKinley is managing and bribing congress. This is the charge which certain oppositon senators, led by the vitriolic Pettigrew, are to prefer against the administration in the closing days of the session.

Though the republicans now appear to be assured of success in carrying through their plans for legislation concerning Cuba and the Philippines, they are not to escape a terrible excoriation on account of the methods which they have employed.

Mr. Morgan, the remarkable old senator from Alabama, started the ball rolling. Turner, of Georgia, and others continued it tonight, and at the first opportunity Mr. Pettigrew will deliver himself of a most sensational speech.

HAS THE MATERIAL.

He will boldly charge, and unfortunately with more truth than poetry in his declarations, that the national legislature has virtually abdicated its functions. It is the executve who controls everything.

The house of representatives is notoriously under the domination of the president. All he has to do is to issue his orders through the speaker. The house makes no pretense to independence. The popular branch of the national legislature is a mere puppet in the hands of the man who sits in the white house.

With the senate he has more trouble. That body keeps up a pretense of independence. But it is noteworthy that in every close struggle over matters vital to the success of administration policies it is the president and not the senate which carries off the victory.

CARRIES HIS POINTS.

The president sends for leaders, not confined altogether to his party side of the chamber. Consultations are held at the executive mansion. The course of the senate upon momentous affairs of state, involving both power and policy, are mapped out over the president's table.

It is to this branch of the subject that Mr. Pettigrew is expected to devote his attention. He intends to show, first, that all this important legislation concerning the Philippines and Cuba was purposely held over to the closing days of the session in order to stifle debate and inquiry for the express purpose of acting so hastily that public opinion should not have opportunity to express itself.

No good reason exists why the Philippine amendment should not have been pressed ere this when there was ample time for full debate. As it turns out, the Cuban policy of the administration, which the president, by adroit manipulation, has induced congress to accept, might have been brought forward a month ago as well as now.

SHOULD MOVE CAUTIOUSLY.

Nor is it seemly or dignified, in the opinion of these opposition critics, to attempt such great legislation as mere amendments to an appropriation bill, as if disposing of the fate of an island which aspires to nationhood were of equal importance with an appropriation for an addition to an army post.

According to these critics the whole course of the administration and its willing aids in the senate has been undignified and unworthy of a great nation.

This is not all, by any means. Mr. Pettigrew is prepared to show by reference to the records how it is that the administraton is liable to dictate to the upper branch of congress, how it is that democratic senators "lay down" and refuse to fight a policy which they have been denouncing with all their force and eloquence for many months.

WILL BE SENSATIONAL.

The revelations which Mr. Pettigrew is to make will be interesting, to say the least. He will charge that democratic senators have been bought up by means of appointments for their sons, relatives, friends and political retainers under the new army law.

He will say that the mystery of democratic willingness over Cuba is to be found in the many visits which democratic senators made to the white house while appointments under the army bill were under consideration. The senator from South Dakota will give the names and the facts in detail, reading from the official records.

If he carries out his purpose and goes into the matter exhaustively he will throw a flood of light upon manipulations which have astonished the country during the last week or ten days.

HAS AN UGLY TONGUE.

Mr. Pettigrew is not the most popular man in the country and in the senate he is not well liked by his colleagues. But his ability is much admired by all and by some it is feared. Everyone concedes that he has an ugly tongue and when his accusations are backed by the facts he is an antagonist not to be despised.

In this case he appears to have the facts on his side. In addition to showing how the executive has presumably stifled the democratic conscience as to Cuba and the Philippines, the South Dakota senator proposes to demonstrate, by a citation from the records, how the republican leaders of the senate have engaged in the same sort of tactics—how they have led their democratic brethren up into the mountains and tempted them.

Mr. Pettigrew will analyze the river and harbor bill and point out how this democratic senator and that democratic senator has been given his little piece of pie in that measure. He will give names and figures.

MAY SHUT HIM OFF.

Unless the republicans can find some way of shutting off the peppery Pettigrew, or the democrats can succeed in coaxing him not to expose their little weaknesses, the country is likely to have something to think about. A little light upon the manner in which the game of politics is played at the two ends of Pennsylvania avenue might not be a bad thing.

For several days the republican leaders of the senate have been boasting tha they had the democrats where they wanted them. In the river and harbor bill the southern senators have been treated with great generosity. "We have held this back till after the Cuban and Philippines amendments wer disposed," said a prominent republican senator today. "That river and harbor bill is a strong pusher for the measures which we must get through in order to carry out our party plans."

Another senator likened the river and harbor bill to a big mogul engine that was used to push a heavy train up a steep mountain grade.

THINK IT A FINE JOKE.

The republican senators think all this a good joke. They are also in great glee over the neat manner in which they pulled off Vest, Cockrell and other western and southern democrats with the St. Louis fair appropriation bill.

If the truth were known probably it would appear that the St. Louis fair bill has been purposely held up as another pusher for the scheme to put a protectorate over Cuba and to give the president unlimited power in the Philippines.

Senator Tillman was bought off with the appropriation for the Charleston fair. Senator Morgan put in his bid to be bought off by passing the Nicaraguan canal bill. But the price came too high and the republicans would not pay it.

Other senators have been handled in various ways. The tobacco schedule of the war tax bill was one of the agencies employed in the cases of some southern senators. This glimpse behind the scenes of the Washington show could be enlarged upon a great deal if one cared to do so.

A REVELATION

FATAL RESULT OF A FALL.

Spencerville, Ind., Feb. 27.—Peter Bishop, aged 77 years, a pioneer business man of this place, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, of paralysis, the result of an accident sustained Monday. He was bringing in a bucket of coal and passing over an icy spot in the yard slipped and fell. The jar to his system paralyzed him and he never recovered. Mr. Bishop was a pioneer business man, coming here in the early 50's. He retired from mercantile life some years ago, with a comfortable fortune. He leaves a widow and the following children: Melvin, a leading business man of St. Joe, recently presidential elector on the prohibition ticket; George A., former clerk of DeKalb county and now in business at Auburn; Edward, of Auburn, and John, of St. Joe, both prominent business men; Mrs. Alice Zimmerman, of Auburn, and Mrs. Minerva Keaggy, of St. Joe. The deceased was a brother-in-law of the Messrs. A. H. and J. R. Bittenger, of Fort Wayne. He was a devoted Christian all his life and always took a prominent part in church work.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

A RIVAL OF ZIMRI DWIGGINS

BANKER EDMUND PALMER GOES BROKE AND TO JAIL.

His Various Country Banks are in a Bad Way—Has One Bank in Indiana Town.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Edmund Palmer, whose banks at Desplaines and Ashley, Ill., and Ellettsville, Ind., have closed with liabilities estimated at more than $80,000, was arrested today at his home in Desplaines, a village twelve miles from Chicago.

No formal charge was preferred against Palmer, the arrest having been made on the request of the authorities of Ashley.

Claims against the Ashley bank are said to aggregate $40,000, at Ellettsville $30,000, and at Desplaines $12,000. It is not believed any action will be taken by the Desplaines authorities.

Palmer, who was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1854, practiced law for a time in Minneapolis and later became high school teacher in this city.

After organizing the string of banks which have now been closed, he became interested in the development of liquid air and traveled extensively, lecturing on the subject. He said today that inability to realize on his securities in liquid air projects was the cause of the closing of the banks. He asserted if allowed to carry out his plans he would have been able to pay all claims in full.

PASSION PLAY TONIGHT.

At the West Creighton avenue Church of Christ this evening Rev. John L. Brandt, the famous lecturer and traveler, will show moving pictures of the Passion play, as given at Oberammergau last year. The apparatus used by Rev. Brandt is one of his own invention and the pictures were taken by him last year. There are twenty-five films, making in all seventy-five miles of pictures, and there are besides 150 stereopticon views. The moving picture machine reproduces in a most lifelike manner scenes from the birth of Christ to the ascension, and are described in a graphic and interesting lecture. The entertainment is far above the average, and the series of pictures owned by Professor Brandt are the most complete in existence. The excellence of the exhibition is attested by the fact that Professor Brandt has engagements one year in advance, the present date having been secured in December, 1899.

J. C. F. McMaken, the well known Washington township farmer, is confined to his home as the result of a severe fall.

MADE A GOVERNOR

UNCLE OF AGUINALDO GIVEN HIGH POSITION.

IN THE PROVINCE OF BULACAN

ONCE AN INSURGENT COLONEL HAS BEEN DEGRADED.

SOME PROTESTS WERE MADE

VOTING OF NATIVES WATCHED WITH INTEREST.

Guiginto, Province of Bulacan, Philippine Islands, Feb. 27.—12:35 p. m.—Jose Serahio, an uncle of Aguinaldo, and formerly an insurgent colonel, has been appointed governor of Bulacan province. There were several candidates, including two army officers, but the United States commission was unanimously in favor of Serahio, who surrendered during General Lawton's progress northward and who has since been such a consistent friend of the United States that Aguinaldo published an order degrading his uncle.

There was considerable protest against Serahio's appointment, chiefly from a delegation which represented the interests of the friars. The commission announced that it had investigated the allegations made against Serahio and found them to be untrue. Captain Greenough, of the Forty-first regiment, was appointed treasurer, and Lieutenant Wells, of the Thirty-second regiment, was appointed supervisor. The other officials appointed were natives.

All the appointments, practically, were made on General Grant's recommendations.

Although by reputation Bulacan is not the easiest province to govern, all the local leaders and most of the inhabitants are now friendly to the United States.

The question of the selection of a capital for the province was submitted to the vote of the delegations. Malolos, the former seat of the insurgent congress, is the best town, but Bulacan has always been the seat of the government and was easily first. The ballot was the first free voting in the Philippines, excepting at the town elections held under military orders. The delegates enjoyed it immensely.

Judge Taft, in admonishing the delegates, said that since they had the reputation of being gamesters, they must abide by the result and show their capability of abiding by the suffrage.

During the course of his speech announcing the appointments, Judge Taft said nowhere had a military commander shown such benevolent consideration for the interests of the people as had General Grant.

The appointment of a native governor indicated the commission's confidence in Tagalogs.

REBELLION SUBSIDING.

Manila, Feb. 27.—Pro-American sentiment is spreading in former insurgent strongholds. Six hundred and sixty-five persons voluntarily took the oath of allegiance at Camiling, province of Albay, at one time reported as next to Luzon, the worst insurgent center, and that 300 took the oath at Calamba. Captain Chase, with a detachment of the Twenty-first regiment, in a three days' scouting expedition, dispersed 200 insurgents and destroyed their main camp, that of Pedro Cabelles.

Lieutenant James, with a detachment of the Eighth infantry, raided a Ladrone rendezvous at MacQuilling, island of Polo, killing two men, securing 150 prisoners and destroying twenty tons of rice and other insurgent supplies.

The armored cruiser Brooklyn has returned here from Hong Kong.

Additional evidence against Carman and Carranza, the merchants accused of dealing with the insurgents, has developed. The investigation in the charges against them is being vigorously prosecuted.

NEW BILL LIKELY

TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING HAS STIRRED LEGISLATURE.

MAY PASS A NEW MEASURE

PROVIDING FOR REMOVAL OF SHERIFFS.

TEMPERANCE BILL KILLED

RESULT OF WOMAN'S PRISON INVESTIGATION.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—The lynching of George Ward at Terre Haute yesterday is likely to have the effect of inducing the passage of another lynching bill by the legislature in which one of the salient features will be a provision for the removal of sheriffs who fail to protect from mob violence prisoners in their custody.

The house today killed the Scott temperance bill and the track elevation bill, a measure urged by the city of Indianapolis.

The senate adopted a favorable report on the bill providing that 20 per cent of a man's wages may be garnished, favored the report on the bill providing that ... instructions of a judge may be taken into the jury room ... the bill relating to the soldiers' and sailors' orphans' home, the provision being that orphaned children of veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars are eligible to admission.

There is now practical certainty that Superintendent Hert, of the Jeffersonville reformatory, against whom charges have been made and whose conduct of his office a commission has investigated, will be exonerated.

THE WOMAN'S PRISON.

The house by a practically unanimous vote, this afternoon passed the bill to remove the board of woman managers of the Woman's Prison and Industrial School for Girls. The bill requires the governor to appoint a new board of managers and makes the members removable at will.

This is the result of the investigation by a legislative committee of charges of cruelty made against the management of the institution.

In line with the action by the house and in a measure forecasting it was the announcement yesterday by the investigating committee that no further testimony in substantiation of the charges will be taken, but that Miss Kelly and any witness that she may desire to have examined will be called.

CRITICISM OF MANAGEMENT.

It is said that the committee will find that the punishments have been too frequent, too often inflicted for trivial offenses or no offenses at all, too severe when inflicted, and too often the result of angry and vengeful moods on the part of the superintendent rather than of any intent on the part of the victims to defy the officers and willfully violate the rules of the institution.

Again, there is unanimity of sentiment among the members of the committee that some of the rules themselves are born of harshness and are calculated to lower the moral standard of the girls rather than prepare them for better lives when they emerge from the institution. This is particularly true of the rules that do not permit any personal adornment, but confine the girls to the plainest possible exterior as to dress, wearing their hair and the like.

Just why a girl, if she so desires, should be deprived of the pleasure of wearing a ribbon in her hair, or of curling her hair, or braiding it, is inexplicable to the committee.

SOME PUNISHMENTS.

Following are some extracts from the "punishment book" of the institution:

Locked in solitary for five days for talking in laundry; locked in dungeon for five days for same offense; given five days in dungeon for talking to company; handcuffed and whipped for using bad language; handcuffed to bed for going out of room; placed in stripes for saying "Bless Moses" to assistant superintendent; whipped for cutting up at table; sent from table in disgrace for grunting; slapped in the mouth for screaming; slapped for frowning; put in stripes for not having apron in the laundry; slapped for laughing at prayers; fourteen inmates whipped for not marching downstairs properly; put in solitary for giving a book to another inmate; whipped and locked up for not being at prayers promptly; whipped for getting in a swing on Sunday; six whipped for cutting their hair; slapped in the mouth for wetting hair; locked in dormitory for wearing ribbon in the hair; whipped for getting up in a window; whipped for not putting hands behind her; hands whipped for playing on the organ.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

LAHRMANN.

George Lahrmann, a pioneer farmer of Marion township and one of the best known of Allen county citizens, died Tuesday at his home on the Piqua road, eight miles south of the city. Mr. Lahrmann was seventy-eight years of age and death was due to kidney troubles.

He was a native of Wertemburg, Germany, born October 17, 1822, and when a lad of seven years came with his parents to America. They lived for five years at Canton, Ohio, then coming to Allen county and settling upon the farm which was Mr. Lahrmann's home for a period of sixty-seven years and until his death.

In October, 1850, he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Yeager, who survives him, and last October the aged couple celebrated the completion of fifty years of wedded happiness. There are eight children—Charles Lahrmann, of Aboite township; William Lahrmann, of Marion township; Mrs. M. Simon, of this city; Mrs. M. Springer, of Pleasant township; George Lahrmann, of Marion township, and John, Sarah and Edward Lahrmann, who reside at the old home.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and at 1:45 from the Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. Franke.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Kaade.—Funeral services of Theodore Kaade will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence, 75 Swinney avenue, and at 2 o'clock from St. John's Lutheran church.

King.—Funeral services of Miss Carrie M. King will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Dierstein, 2 Fairfield avenue. Both funeral and interment are private.

Braeuer.—Funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Braeuer will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence, 92 Heustis avenue, and at 2 o'clock from Emmanuel's church.

CONSUMPTION TO BE CURED

ELECTRICITY THE MEANS TO BE EMPLOYED.

A Giant Stock Company Formed to Establish Sanitariums in Various Places.

Cleveland, Ohio. Feb. 27.—It is stated that a company will be organized here within a few days composed of Cleveland and eastern capitalists and capitalized at $1,000,000, to erect a system of sanitariums in the larger cities of the country for the cure of consumption by electricity.

It is alleged that a positive cure for the disease has been found.

Col. William S. Rogers, of the Brush Electric company, is one of the promoters of the company. He said:

"The company is financing a new invention. An absolute cure for consumption has been found. Electricity will play a most prominent part in the cure we are advancing, and we anticipate that the ends we aim at will be attained. Medicine plays no part whatever."

A site has been chosen and the first sanitarium will be built in this city at a cost of $180,000.

BIG TRACTION CONCERN.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 27.—The Traction and Light company, authorized capital of $4,000,000, was incorporated her today to manufacture light, heat and fuel; to do a transportation business in New Jersey not requiring a condemnation of property, and to construct and operate railroads outside of the state. The stock is divided into $1,000,000 first and $1,000,000 second preferred, each with 4 per cent. non-cumulative dividends. The rest of the stock is common. The incorporators are Samuel Thomas and Samuel B. Lawrence, of New York, and James C. Young, of Jersey City.

WILLING TO DISGORGE.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—A special to the Post from Omaha, Neb., says: Edward A. Cudahy has received a letter from the men who kidnaped his son, offering to return $20,000 of the ransom money on condition that all detectives be withdrawn and that no attempt be made to prosecute the abductors, should their identity be discovered. It is understood the letter was mailed at Council Bluffs.

AFTER STATE MEETING.

The G. A. R. posts in this city, backed by the citizens, will make an effort to secure the G. A. R. state encampment for this city in 1902. The last encampment held in this city was in the early nineties, and it is believed that with organized effort the state meeting can be secured for Fort Wayne next year. The state meeting this year will be held at Logansport in May and the Fort Wayne delegates will make a bid for the convention next year.

ADMIT BAND TO MEMBERSHIP.

The members of Fort Wayne lodge No. 116, Knights of Pythias, have decided to admit to membership the entire Olympia band, which will hereafter be known as the Knights of Pythias band. It will be the only lodge in the city having a band composed entirely of lodge members. T. N. Roach, who shortly leaves the city, was the guest of honor at a smoker given by the lodge last evening.

The Whole Truth!

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

There's nothing so good for a cough as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The 25 cent size is just right for an ordinary, everyday cold. The 50 cent size is better for the cough of bronchitis, croup, grip, and hoarseness. The dollar size is the best for chronic coughs, as in consumption, chronic bronchitis, asthma, etc.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1.00.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send to us and we will express you a dollar bottle, prepaid. Be sure you give us your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

SURPRISED.

Flavor of Food Won Her.

"When the landlady told me that the new dish at my plate was the much-talked-of food, Grape-Nuts, I tasted it languidly, expecting the usual tasteless, insipid compound posing under some one of the various names of 'breakfast foods.'

"I am a school teacher and board. Have usually been in robust health, but last spring I had the much-dreaded symptoms of spring fever set in with great severity. I could hardly keep at my work and headaches were almost constant. Food had become nauseating and I only partook of any sort of food from a sense of duty.

"My nights were spent in distress. The first taste of Grape-Nuts yielded a flavor that was new and attracted me at once. I arose from the table satisfied, having enjoyed my meal as I had not done for weeks. So I had Grape-Nuts food for breakfast every day and soon found other reasons besides my taste for continuing the food.

"All of the spring fever symptoms disappeared, the headaches left, my complexion cleared up, and after a supper of Grape-Nuts I found myself able to sleep like a baby, in spite of a hard day and hard evening's work. The food has never palled on my appetite nor failed in furnishing a perfect meal, full of strength and vigor. I know from my own experience of the value of this food for any one who feels strength lagging under the strain of work, and it is evident that the claim made by the makers that it is a brain food is well taken. Please omit my name if you publish this." The lady lives in Hanover, Ind. Name supplied by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

HARD FIGHT ON.

[Bluffton News.

An intense war is on in business circles at Ossian. Beatty & Doan have conducted the lumber, brick and tile business in that section and have had the exclusive handling of all the grain at that point. A few months ago they bought a line of builders' hardware and added it to their stock in trade. This movement was regarded by F. M. Thurber, the hardware merchant, as an infringement upon his line of trade.

As retaliatory measures Mr. Thurber arranged with Charles Bash, of Fort Wayne, to buy grain and has established an elevator at Ossian. He has also put in a stock of lumber in the armory building at East Ossian, and the rumor is prevalent that he will begin the construction of a brick yard and tile mill this spring. Messrs. Beatty & Doan will add banking business to their other lines, for all of which they have ample capital.

The business world of the northern part of the county seems generally torn up in competition of a class that usually proves of little benefit either to consumer or those in charge.

DIED IN GERMANY.

A cablegram Tuesday to G. Max Hofmann, superintendent of the Fort Wayne Gas company, brought the sad intelligence of the death of his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Hofmann, which occurred at her home near Dresden. Mrs. Hofmann was eighty-three years of age. Her husband died about a year ago, and Mr. Hofmann was planning to make a visit to Germany soon for a visit to his aged mother.

Reform, like charity, is best begun at home and the wife of a saloonkeeper at Elnora, this state, approving the methods of Mrs. Nation, went into her husband's "joint" during his absence and very effectually wrecked the liquor dispensary.

It has been repeatedly stated that a keen sense of his unpopularity was slowly killing Admiral Sampson. If this be true the latest criticism aroused by his letter in the Gunner Morgan affair is likely to afford no sudden or permanent improvement of his health. Admiral Sampson should take common sense in heroic doses and quit taking his pen in hand.

There is a bit of humor in the announcement from Washington that the senate's action with respect to the relations of this government with Cuba is wholly satisfactory to the president. It ought to be. No one can foresee the outcome and for whatever happens the senate and not the president will be forced to shoulder responsibility. For good or ill the president now has instructions to observe and a policy to enforce. Moreover, the conditions which hedge the president are said by Senator Beveridge to be "very elastic," which will give him all the latitude he may desire without much increasing his responsibility.

THE TERRE HAUTE AFFAIR.

Whatever has been or may be said that applies with truth and force to mob vengeance anywhere applies to the atrocious affair at Terre Haute yesterday. The lynching and burning of the negro Ward was distinguished by no features to make it better or worse than such examples of mob violence as other communities have furnished. It was outrageous, disgraceful, a crime against humanity, an offense to all law and is a blot on the character of the community in which it occurred. It pollutes the name and multiplies the disgrace of this state, which in a period of little more than four years has been the scene of the lynching of eleven men.

That the people of Terre Haute should have been stirred to intense infuriation by the crime of the negro was most natural. That they should have demanded summary punishment of him was also natural. That they should have resorted to unspeakable brutality in appeasing a natural anger was an exhibition of pure savagery. Obedience to the prescriptions of the law, acquiesence in the orderly processes of justice mark precisely the difference between savagery and civilization.

The spectacle furnished by Terre Haute yesterday is not edifying. In one of the largest cities of one of the greatest and supposedly most enlightened states of the north a man was taken at high noon from jail and murdered by a mob, to whose mad bent practically no resistance was offered. In the presence of acquiescent thousands he was shot, hanged and burned. Indiana has had a tolerably long record of lawless hangings. Now the state mounts to the "bad eminence" of having "burned a nigger," and is ready for proud classification with Georgia, Texas, Kentucky and other states whose mobs and bonfires have erstwhile so rudely shocked with horror our finer sense.

THORPE GOES TO JAIL.

The only sinner at the mayor's bar of justice this morning was Jabez L. Thorpe. Jabez had been up against other bars yesterday, as he was slated for drunkenness. He was also accused of frightening little girls at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets, but was sent over on the intoxication charge. The mayor gave him the limit, $25 and costs, which will give the old fellow a rest until after easter. He is an intolerable nuisance and his relatives, who have been written to, refuse to have anything more to do with him. When he is released in April he will be sent out of town.

The police force is looking up the boys who turned in a false alarm of fire last night. The mayor says that if found they will surely be punished, but as the same statement has been often made before, the lads who delight in that kind of sport give little attention to the threats and warnings.

ALL ARE HELPING.

The universal interest of the people of Fort Wayne in the auditorium project is illustrated by a letter received this morning by P. A. Randall, president of the Commercial club. Omitting the signature the letter is as follows:

"Hon. P. A. Randall, City—Dear Sir:—If there is a man in Fort Wayne who has pulled harder against the stream of adversity than I have in the past three years he ought to be lassoed and put on exhibition. But yet out of my poverty I want to do something, very little though it may be, to insure the success of the auditorium project. Herewith I hand you check for $5.00 for five shares of stock to be issued to my son."

INDIANAPOLIS PEOPLE IN MOBBISH MOOD.

VICTIM RECOGNIZES PICTURE OF MAN UNDER ARREST.

THE TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—Dorothy Darter, a young girl residing at Irvington, a suburb of this city, who was brutally assaulted by a negro Thursday afternoon, today was shown the photograph of a colored man under arrest on suspicion at New Castle.

Miss Darter positively identified the picture as that of her assailant, but added that she should like to see him in order to be sure of his identity.

He probably will be brought before her at once.

Owing to the extremely revolting nature of the assault, which occurred in the center of Irvington in daylight, sentiment against the negro has been aroused to such a pitch that he is almost certain to be lynched if possible.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken by the police department to prevent mob vengeance, however.

It is understood that Reed, the man under arrest at New Castle, will be brought here late this afternoon to face Miss Darter.

THE TERRE HAUTE AFFAIR.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 27.—Sheriff Fasig today made a full report of the lynching of George Ward to Governor Durbin, in which the sheriff says he swore in a large force of deputies and took every precaution possible to prevent lynching.

The grand jury will meet in a few days and will be instructed to rigorously investigate the matter before taking up any other business.

The funeral of Miss Finkelstein, the victim, was held today, and the rabbi who conducted the services strongly condemned the conduct of the mob.

A GIRL ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Elkhart, Ind., Feb. 27.—Miss Maude Jackson, a young woman of Elkhart, attempted suicide with morphine. She was discovered in a serious condition, and her mother administered emetics in vain. A physician reached her when she was fast sinking, and her life was saved. Despondency over a love affair was the cause of the attempt.

DEPOSIT OF YELLOW OCHRE.

Churubusco, Ind., Feb. 27.—While cutting a large ditch from Oak lake to Hecla, in this county, the ditchers found a bank of yellow clay, which, upon being tested, has proven to be a good quality of yellow ochre. The field is extensive and is generally considered a profitable find. It will be turned to commercial account.

ELECTION CONTRACT IN COURT.

Bluffton, Ind., Feb. 27.—David Long filed suit today against the Adams Stave and Heading company for $22.50 on a written contract, dated November 3. By terms of the contract Adams agreed to pay Long $1.50 a day in the event that McKinley was elected, and $1.25 if Bryan was elected. Adams was to retain the twenty-five cents a day as Long's guarantee that he would keep sober.

A RELIGIOUS REIGN.

Frankfort, Ind., Feb. 27.—Rev. John Cark, of this city, has succeeded in stirring up the greatest religious excitement at Clarks Hill that that little town ever knew. He went there a few weeks ago to conduct an undenominational revival, and did so with success, but at the close of his series of meetings he organized a Holiness congregation and arrangements were at once begun to build a church. Farmers and merchants neglected their business to engage in the work of the church. When the Holiness converts began their work of organization the old church circles were torn up and a church war has resulted. Many of the new converts to Holiness doctrine have become so enthused that they are refusing to call physicians when their families need them, claiming that a season of prayer is all that is required. Many go into trances every day and evening and declare that God has revealed Himself to them.

KOKOMO AND THE POLICE.

Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 27.—The unexpected action of the legislature in giving Kokomo a metropolitan police system has brought about a renewal of the old struggle between citizens in the appointment of the police commissioners. The "liberal" element has sent a delegation to Governor Durbin, asking that commissioners be named who will not demand a strict construction of the liquor laws. The other element, known as the "good citizens," do not want a wide-open policy followed. A public meeting was held at the Presbyterian church Monday night, when a committee representing the "good citizens" was appointed, and Governor Durbin will be asked to make no appointments until the general public of the city be given a hearing. A civic league was also organized at the meeting and a committee of twenty was to go to Indianapolis yesterday to talk with Governor Durbin.

LIEN ON A CHURCH.

Logansport, Ind., Feb. 27.—Harrison Grant, a contractor, has brought suit to foreclose a mechanic's lien against the Church of God. The congregation recently completed the new building, which was largely the work of Rev. Alexander Bied's own hands. He made most of the excavation, assisted in laying the foundation, drew the plans for the church, superintended the construction, and did as much with hammer and saw as the most experienced carpenter on the job. At one time the roof fell in, seriously endangering the lives of the workmen. Rev. Bied is undaunted by misfortune, and is pluckily carrying his plans for dedication into effect.

SUPERINTENDENT DISMISSED.

Logansport, Ind., Feb. 27.—The Winimac school board has summarily dismissed Superintendent A. J. Bied, after he had refused to resign. His resignation was demanded on charges made by Miss Pearl Lemasters, who has been living with the Bied family and attending High school. He had been superintendent of the Winamac schools for eight years, and is well educated. He is a graduate of Miami university, the State Normal and Iron City Business college, and had spent a year in medical schools. He taught two years at the State Normal and one year at Sullivan, Ind.

CONTEST FOR CORONER.

Auburn, Ind., Feb. 27.—There is a spirited contest among aspirants to the office of county coroner, made vacant by the death of Charles Comesky. Numerous petitions are being circulated. The impression is that Dr. Ephraim Raub will get the place. He was defeated for the office at the last election.

BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Wheeling is very anxious to break into the Inter-State this season, and there is talk among the Stogletown fans of organizing a stock company to run a team this year. "Pop" Lytle and Sammy Nichols, of Wheeling, are willing to take the management of the team providing a company is organized. The Sister's Island Country club, composed of a number of Wheeling sports, would erect a grandstand and lay out grounds on the lower Sister's island, near that city, where Sunday games could probably be played. It is very unlikely, however, that Wheeling will be in the Inter-State circuit this year.

Indianapolis Press: "George Mullin, well known in base ball circles in Indiana, is trying to get his release from the Fort Wayne club of the Inter-State league in order to accept an offer made by Charles Comiskey, of the Chicago American league club. Comiskey offers Mullin $100 a month to play with the White Stockings. George Fuller, who caught for Wabash last year, has signed with Fort Wayne and will do most of the catching for that club. Jack Bowen, another Wabash player, has signed to play left field for the Omaha, Neb., team, and George Rohe, a former Wabash shortstop, will be seen with McGraw's Baltimore team this year."

The Sentinel on Monday predicted that the National league would yield to the demands of the players and then the players in turn would stand by the National league and thus force the American league into an agreement or else leave it to fight its battles alone and without the support of the players. How well grounded was The Sentinel's belief is shown by the following extract from the press report of yesterday's meeting in New York:

"That the National league had imposed a 'war measure' upon the players in return for concessions was confirmed later in the evening when President Zimmer, of the Players' association, signed the following agreement and sent it to the magnates:

"'As president of the Protective Association of Base Ball Players, and as its authorized representative, I hereby agree in return for the concessions granted by the National league and American association of professional base ball clubs, this 26th day of February, 1901, that all National league and Eastern league players who may sign American league contracts will be suspended pending action by the Players' Protective association as a body.'"

President Powers, of the American association, says his league is not dead. Maybe it dead and maybe it is not. Maybe it is dead and Powers don't know it.

CITY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

The city democratic committee has been called to meet this evening at the city hall. The object of the meeting as stated in the call is to organize and formulate plans for the coming city campaign. Up to date, owing to the disturbed condition of city affairs, occasioned by legislation concerning the city government, the political arena has been remarkably quiet. Before the meeting of the legislature there were no candidates for mayor announced, although it was generally conceded that Mayor Scherer would be a candidate for re-election. Now, however, since he has practically been legislated out of office, other candidates are being dug up and some are bestirring themselves a bit. The salary, which under the new charter, will be reduced to $1,000, of course cuts considerable ice and dampens the enthusiasm of the ambitious, but there are still a few left who are willing to sacrifice themselves on the altar of their city's weal and preside over the destinies of the community at even the cut rate price. Comptroller Berghoff is most prominently mentioned so far, but he has not yet signified his intention of entering the field. D. L. Harding, it is understood, is willing to assume the mantle once more and will put up a stiff fight, while it is also acknowledged that it would not take much persuasion to induce Councilman Hench to shy his castor into the ring. H. B. Manning is the only candidate for clerk who has yet avowed his intention of going into the fight, although there are several others who are anxious to be struck by official lightning and have their rods pointed high in the air. The meeting of the committee tonight, however, is not for the purpose of making or discussing candidates, but simply to get the machine in running order so that it will be ready for business when the time comes.

CALLED TO COVINGTON.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potthoff, of East Washington street, have gone to Covington, Ky., where they were called by the death of Henry Potthoff, a brother, which occurred at his home in that city Sunday at the age of sixty-seven years. Mr. Potthoff was a miller by occupation, and has frequently visited in this city.

WOMEN'S ILLS THAT GROW

Centerville, Iowa, March 7, 1900.

I suffered with falling of the womb for about 20 years. I would take weak spells and could not stand on my feet long enough to get a meal of victuals. At the age of 40 I grew worse. I tried doctors' medicines until I lost faith and had no hopes of ever getting better. I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and now I am strong enough to do my own housework.

Mrs. H. W. HILLYARD.

"Female ills" are ills that grow. They never wear off. Mrs. Hillyard suffered 20 years. Thousands of women are slipping into premature graves, waiting for their troubles to right themselves. Your patient suffering entitles you to a better reward than this, but you do not get it. Much of the chronic female suffering to-day is due to the neglect of early menstrual irregularities, which frequently grow into troublesome complications even before the years of early womanhood are past. These troubles fasten on you so slowly and gradually that the delicate female organs are wrecked before you realize it. Mrs. Hillyard's 20 years' suffering was brought to a close when she began taking

WINE OF CARDUI

It worked the beginning of a new era in her life—an era of freedom from suffering. Is it not strange that a woman will go on enduring the terrible dragging pains of falling of the womb, the torture of painful menstruation and the distresses of leucorrhœa—the ills that grow—when it is so well established that Wine of Cardui will cure them? Mrs. Hillyard could not be induced to go through her suffering again. Why do you endure it when Wine of Cardui offers you relief? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION COMPLETES ITS LABORS.

MR. GRAHAM ON TEMPERANCE

TERMS MRS. NATION A FEMALE JOHN BROWN.

MRS. THOMAS' FINE ADDRESS

REV. CARMAN SPEAKS ON CHILDHOOD'S CALL.

There were fervent "amens" and a vigorous clapping of hands when the name of Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas saloon wrecker, was mentioned in the course of a vigorous address upon temperance by James E. Graham before the Allen County Sunday school convention this morning. "I do not approve of the violation of law," said Mr. Graham, "but the day will come when we will be raising monuments to Mrs. Nation and be singing her praises in song."

Rev. Shoemaker led the morning devotions, and a number of townships presented reports. The convention then took up "The Sunday School Teacher" in a round table discussion that brought out thoroughly the qualities necessary for efficient work as a teacher in the Sunday school, and the methods by which the most complete and highest work may be accomplished.

A POWERFUL PLEA.

Hon. James E. Graham, of this city, made a powerful plea for temperance in a fervent address that held the closest attention of his hearers. Mr. Graham pointed out that the pioneer temperance people and prohibitionists have been treated precisely as were the abolitionists before the civil war. All great political parties see that intemperance is a national evil. The plan of agitation has been tried as a means of correcting it, but that has proven of no avail, because the evil lives by law. Petitions to congress and to state legislatures are likewise inefficient, because the liquor traffic is in the hands of men who can combine capital and control legislatures.

"Then," continued Mr. Graham, "they tried electing good men to office. Same old result. The abolitionists organized the liberty party and the temperance people organized the prohibition party. The year 1896 was dark for the prohibitionists, but not so dark as was 1852 for the liberty party. Persecution has come to the prohibitionists, but you will recall that out of the persecution of the liberty party came the final triumph of emancipation. Even now a female John Brown has arisen in Kansas. A prohibitory law is all right with a true man behind it. I do not approve of the violation of law, but the day will come when the people will be building monuments to Carrie Nation and singing her praises in song. The liquor dealers in Kansas are outlaws, and have no right there, for the statutes prohibit the traffic. Mark my words: Mrs. Nation will never be tried; they dare not make a legal record there of what the law is. I'm in favor of protection, but it is for the protection of the million American boys who are just taking their first drink. You talk about expansion—but how about the expansion that is going on in the liquor trade?

"Now, I want to say to the mothers, wives and sisters, keep on praying, it's all you can do. I am in favor of woman suffrage, but I doubt if the women were to vote whether this question would be any nearer settled than it is now. I notice that in states where they have female suffrage the temperance question is not advancing any more rapidly than elsewhere. To the men let me say: Quit praying to God to remove the liquor traffic until you are willing to register your personal protest against the business."

MRS. THOMAS SPEAKS.

The subject assigned to Mrs. Thomas was changed to "Looking at Things From the Wrong Standpoint," and in part Mrs. Thomas said.

"We often hear it said that the standpoint alters the view, and I would have you look at Sunday school work only from the right standpoint. Its full beauty is only revealed upon close inspection. This work is infinite in its possibilities and divine in its rewards. The teacher in influencing the hearts and minds of young people is doing God's own work. You may not see results as quickly as you desire; the work sometimes seems to go slowly. Be faithful, and bye and bye a new character will stand out glorious in its relation to God.

"We are looking at the work from a wrong standpoint when we neglect detail; when we fail to attend carefully to the business interests of the school. There must be more or less machinery, but it should be kept in the background. We see the work from the wrong standpoint when we are listless and half-hearted. Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm. This is an age of progress. How is it with our Sunday school work? We see it from the wrong standpoint when we fail to recognize the power of prayer. O, how few times we hear prayer for the Sunday school. We look from a wrong standpoint when we fail to recognize the necessity of giving time to the work. I believe God's work needs earnest, consecrated time more than it needs money. We ought to be glad we have a part in it. We are in a wrong standpoint when we regard it as work only for the boys and the girls; we see it wrongly when we fail to make thorough and careful preparation. We must be full—brimfull—of the lesson. Then remember that our teaching will go no farther than our lives will carry it. There must be nothing in our lives that needs covering up. When our lives correspond to our teaching then, and only then, will we be qualified to teach this wonderful Word. The great burden of our work and the great burden of our prayer should be soul-harvesting. All teaching should lead to Christ. It is wrong to allow discouragement to overcome us. A brave heart is the truest wisdom of the hour."

POWER, NOT MACHINERY.

"We need more power, not more machinery, in Sunday school work," said Rev. J. C. Evans, of Bethel Evangelical church. "This is an aggressive age. Things move rapidly in church, in state and in every department of existence. The church has much machinery and the work of invention has not yet stopped. Until all the boys and the girls are gathered into the folds of the church I shall believe that the most perfect machine has not yet been invented. I look back a quarter of a century and I note that we did not have the church helps that we now enjoy. Back a little further there were no Sunday school quarterlies and the teacher went before his class with only the open Bible. A machine amounts to but very little if there is no power behind it. The Sunday school needs the power of the Holy Ghost. We need the power of prayer. We must earnestly pray to God for the conversion of the children entrusted to our care. Prayer is the keynote that unlocks God's treasure house. Then we need the power of love. There can be no good character without the love of God in the heart to inspire him on as a living epistle. We want more power and less machinery."

THE CLOSING SESSION.

This afternoon's session closed the work of the convention, and there is a pronounced conviction that it has been a most interesting and profitable one. This afternoon Dr. James English led the devotions and the round-table work was upon the Home Class department. Mrs. Bryner continued her talks, with the subject, "Next Sunday's Lesson," and Rev. J. C. Carman gave an address upon "Normal Work." This was followed by the reports of the committees on resolutions and nominations, the election of officers and final adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

Berry street church was completely filled Tuesday evening by interested Sunday school workers who desired to hear Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, of Chicago, and Rev. J. C. Carman, the state superintendent. Mrs. Bryner is a recognized authority upon primary teaching and in a half hour talk, using the blackboard diagrams, Mrs. Bryner gave many ideas that will be of advantage in instructing the children. In part Mrs. Bryner said:

"The teacher should not tell the child things that are beyond its comprehension, but the explanation should be so made that the child can grasp the idea and retain it. The teacher has a responsibility to Christ, the child and the church, showing Christ to the child, bringing the child to Christ, and making the child a worker in the church. The teacher should be thoroughly prepared before beginning the lesson. She should gather together all she can about it, and find out what part will be most instructive and profitable. The teacher should get the child's attention and keep it. She should aim at something, so that when the lesson is over the child will have profited by it. She should have a beginning and end to the lesson, omitting in the course of instruction those things that will be hard to understand and at the same time of no value when they are understood. The child should be taught responsibility and not given entertainment alone. The songs which the class will sing must be carefully selected and those used which fit the occasion. A song sung with a purpose will be three times as effective as one selected merely to fill up time."

CHILD A QUESTION MARK.

"Childhood's Call to the Church" was the theme of Rev. J. C. Carmen, the state superintendent, and he handled his subject in a most interesting manner. In opening Rev. Carman expressed his pleasure at speaking in Allen county, which he said was one of the best in the state in Sunday school work. Continuing, he said in part:

"My subject is one with which everyone is more or less acquainted. I should call a child, more than anything else, a question mark. The child's soul hungers for information and it is through the information thus supplied that the child will be brought to the church. These questions will nearly all be propounded in the home and it is the home religion and family prayer that will show the child the right way. The father and mother are of infinitely more aid to the little one than a hundred Sunday school teachers can be, if they observe the home religion. There is many a father and mother thinking more of gold than of the child. I know personally of the case of a prominent business man in a city not far distant from Fort Wayne. When a boy he had been to church and became impressed with the word of God. Then was an effort to secure his conversion and it was thought that it would be successful. When the boy went home from church, fully resolved in his own heart to become a Christian, his parents, who were members of the church, did not say a word of encouragement to him, and he said if his parents did not care he did not care either. The result was that he grew up under the influence of the world and is still far from God. The home must help the child and the Sunday school must awaken to the needs of Christ in the home. The child must not be allowed to grow up with the world only for a guide. The soul cry of the young must be heeded and in this work the home must be first. The child must first be evangelized and then educated."

PASTORAL WORK.

"The Pastoral Work of the Teacher" was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Nettie Hubler, secretary of the convention. Mrs. Hubler said:

There are so many phases of this branch of Sunday school work that we hardly know which ones to dwell upon, but will try to take a few of the most important.

The teaching work is by no means the only work of the Sunday school teacher. There is the pastoral work of shaping and guiding the scholar, a work that is even more important to the scholar's character and destiny than the work of merely teaching him.

First, the teacher's influence is a great power for good upon the child to shape or sway or bias him accordingly. In order to have and use influence (good influence, of course) a teacher must be a Christian. The influence which it is the teacher's duty to exert is two-fold—voluntary and involuntary, intended and unintentional, conscious or unconscious. To begin with, a teacher ought to be clear in his mind as to the direction in which he would influence his scholars by his words and by his endeavors.

A teacher inevitably influences more by what he is seven days in the week than by what he says one day in the week.

He sways his scholars by his own character. In order to do his best teaching, a teacher must be the best man he can be. We often forget the influence we exert over others.

No teacher would intentionally do anything that would destroy his influence for good with his scholars, and he cannot be too careful in that regard. The teacher sometimes gets discouraged because the influence for good is not manifested immediately in the scholar's character or conduct. "Be not weary in well-doing," the harvest of your influence may be today and again it may be years hence.

Second, the true measure of a Sunday school teacher's personal power over his scholars is found in his love for them, and if you are possessed with love for souls you will have power with your scholars.

Some years ago a man was walking along a street in Lowell, Mass., looking for the home of a Sunday school superintendent with whom he was to pass the Sabbath. He was not sure of the house, so he stopped a thinly clad little girl, who was passing, and pointing to the house asked if Deacon Chase lived there. "I don't know if it's 'Deacon' Chase," was the little girl's reply, "but the man who lives there is called 'Chase' and he loves little children."

That is a description which every Sunday school teacher might long for.

Again, there is the work of reaching the scholars when absent. "Out of sight, out of mind" is an adage that often applies to the Sunday school scholar.

If a scholar is absent one time from the Sunday school and no notice is taken of his absence he naturally thinks the tie that bound him to his teacher is not a very strong one. It may be some outside temptation that caused his absence, or it may be his lack of interest in his class or his teacher. But if the teacher visits him the week following or even sends a kindly note to him it may be the means of getting him back again from influences that are not for his good. Then it may be that sickness is the cause of his absence and if the teacher visits him at such a time and shows his sympathy with him in his trouble a new hold is gained on confidence and affection. While the teacher's absence at such a time is thought by the scholar to be a lack of interest in him personally. Whatever the cause of a scholar's absence the teacher should not neglect hunting that one up and make him to feel he is interested in him.

Sometimes the scholar can only be reached by such visits as these. The teacher should always show respect for him in his sphere of life and sympathize with him in all he has to do. Occasionally a chance meeting of a scholar on the street gives a better opportunity for an influential, personal word than any which the teacher could seek. Sunday school teacher, do not neglect these opportunities; they may come but once.

Again, take the matter of the scholar's reading. How many of the Sunday school teachers count themselves directly responsible for the books the scholars of their class select from the Sunday school library? Yet the teacher is responsible. The books the scholar reads have a great deal to do with shaping both his tastes and his character, and the teacher should use his power in that direction.

Books which are good for one scholar are not necessarily good for all. Scholars need wise counsel as to the ones best suited to their needs and the teacher should give that counsel and try to cultivate a taste for the very best books they can get. Of course, it takes time and effort to do this, but all good works costs time and effort.

Another point at which the counsel and help of the Sunday school teacher is always important is the care and guidance of Christian children.

An army is not given power as an army merely by new enlistments, it is the arming, the drilling, the disciplining that makes the soldiers effective and a veteran battalion of two hundred men trained and experienced in faithful service is often more effective in the crisis of a battle than two or three full regiments of a thousand men each made up of raw recruits and inexperienced officers would prove. So it is in the Christian army. Trained and veteran soldiers are needed for the great Captain's service and it is the duty of the Sunday school teacher to equip and train the Christian soldiers of his class.

The pastoral duties and responsibilities of the Sunday school teacher are infinite. There is always work for him to do in this line.

Trumbull gives a good illustration of this work in the following:

"In the capital at Washington are two sets of massive metal doors with bronze panels, the one set representing scenes in the life of Washington and the other scenes in the life of Columbus. When these panels came from the foundry [illegible] they showed little of grace or elegance of design, and nothing of the finish which they now display. Their surfaces were rough and their edges ragged. Then commenced the work of conforming the panels to the original models.

"Day after day skilled workmen sat over these [illegible] polishing, [illegible], what might have seemed to the careless eye already shaped properly.

"Visiting the foundry at that time, Trumbull stood for a while near a careful worker at the panels and saw him faithfully [illegible]. At length he said to him: 'I shouldn't think you would know when you were through with this work, you seem always to have something to do.' The man replied: 'We never are through with it, so long as they will let us work at it. Such work as this is never perfect, so we keep at it until they take the panels away, and then, of course, we must stop.'"

Such is the pastoral work of the Sunday school teacher. Work on character, like work on bronze figures, is never finished in this life. What was touched yesterday needs retouching today. In the thought of this truth every teacher ought to live, work, pray and trust.

"Standing still is dangerous ever.
Toil is meant for Christians now;
Let there be when evening cometh
Honest sweat upon thy brow:
And the Master shall come smiling
At the setting of the sun,
Saying, as he pays the wages,
Good and faithful one, well done."

RHEUMATISM

PAIN-CRAZED.

THROBBING MUSCLES, ACHING JOINTS, TWITCHING, TIRED NERVES.

When this demon disease drives his poison tipped javelins into the quivering muscles and nerves, the terrible body racking pains that follow drive the unfortunate sufferer almost insane. The pains are so intensely sharp and cutting they seem to chill the blood and stop the heart beats. Rapidly the parts affected become swollen and red, and so tender and sensitive that the lightest touch is painful. Every movement of the body adds to the agony; the nerves, too, give way under the terrible suffering, and the pain-crazed victim seeks in vain for rest and ease. Under such conditions it is not surprising that the sufferer from this torturing disease is readily persuaded to try any remedy that promises even temporary relief.

As many of the so-called cures contain a large per cent. of opium their use leads to ruinous habits, and the unsuspecting sufferer pays dearly for his short respite from pain.

There are many forms of Rheumatism, the most common being

Acute Inflammatory, which usually begins with chilly sensations, followed by high fever, a quick, strong pulse, and excruciating pains shifting to different parts of the body. When the inflammation and fever subside it leaves the patient in a weak, debilitated state, and liable at any time to a fresh attack.

Sciatica is Rheumatism or Neuralgia of the sciatic nerve, and is a most distressing form of this disease; the hips and thigh being involved, the body is sometimes bent almost double and greatly deformed.

Muscular Rheumatism affects the muscles and fibrous tissue, and an acute attack may totally disable one; the muscles becoming stiff and sore, and in many cases so contracted that any kind of work or walking is almost impossible.

Articular Rheumatism is attended with the most horrible pains in the joints and bones, often swelling to abnormal size and becoming permanently locked and immovable, when the crutch and stick are indispensable.

Rheumatism may be inherited like other blood diseases, and the wise parent well knows that what the child calls "growing pains" are sure symptoms of hereditary Rheumatism.

The use of Mercury, whether taken internally or used as a salve, produces a most shocking form of Rheumatism, causing necrosis of the bones, which work out through the flesh and produce the most sickening ulcers.

Rheumatism Follows La Grippe.

Mr. B. F. Gregory, of Union, S. C., was long an invalid and never free from pain. S. S. S. in a short time cured the disease, and he says that his general health is better than in years.

Painful Sciatica.

Mr. J. A. LeSeur, Atlanta, Ga., says if a fragment of bomb shell had passed through his hip the pain could have been no worse. He found no relief until S. S. S. was begun, and is now entirely cured.

No Use for Crutches.

Sciatic Rheumatism made Mrs. James Keil, of 1711 New York avenue, Washington, D. C., a cripple, but a few bottles of S. S. S. cured her, and she has no use for crutches now.

Couldn't Dress or Feed Himself.

Mr. J. O'Malley, 2135 No. Senate avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., tried fifty-two prescriptions for Muscular Rheumatism, but got no better. He took S. S. S. five years ago, and has been well and at work ever since.

Every Muscle and Bone Ached.

Mr. W. H. Settlage, Wapakoneta, O., says: "I was almost disabled by a long attack of Rheumatism. Medicines and liniments gave me little relief, and not until I began S. S. S. did the pains leave me, and I have not felt one in a year.

Had Become Chronic.

Two years ago Mr. Wm. L. Hill, of Winston, N. C., was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism. He says S. S. S. put his blood in excellent condition, and the pains all left him.

Settled in His Bones.

Mr. Earnest Dougherty, of Commerce, Mo., says the pains began in the bottom of his foot, then went to his knees, and finally it seemed every joint in his body was affected. Two bottles of S. S. S. made him all right again.

Couldn't Turn Over in Bed.

Mr. Chas. Whittingham, 1212 Fetter street, Louisville, Ky., had Acute Inflammatory Rheumatism so bad he could not turn in bed. S. S. S. cured him after all other treatment had failed.

It matters not what form the disease has assumed in your case, or where located, it is caused by acid poisons that have been absorbed into the blood and deposited in either the joints, muscles, membranes or nerves, and wherever lodged, these poisons have a corrosive, irritating effect, producing intense inflammation and pain. Liniments, hot baths, the electric battery, and plasters may relieve you some, but a cure will never come from their use. While the pains may be dislodged and scattered, they soon settle in some other portion of the body; often in the region of the heart, and liable to prove fatal at any moment. It is impossible to reach the diseased blood through external or surface treatment.

SSS

S. S. S., when taken into the circulation, soon neutralizes the acids and restores the blood to a pure and healthy condition, and when strong, rich blood once more flows through the body, the little gritty particles that have been gathering in the joints are dissolved and washed out, the feverish membranes cooled and nourished, and the muscles and joints become as supple and elastic as a child's. As the system gets under the influence of the medicine the appetite and digestion improve, the pains come only at long intervals, and before you realize it your Rheumatism is gone. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier; it contains no minerals whatever. Potash, alkalies and the mineral salts so often prescribed ruin the stomach and break down the general health.

CUBA'S STAND INDICATED

CLAUSES FIXING RELATIONS WITH UNITED STATES.

Will Not Permit Its Territory to be Used as Base of War Against Any Foreign Power.

Havana, Feb. 27.—The constitutional convention remained in session until 3 o'clock this morning completing the work of drawing up the clauses in the constitution referring to the relations between Cuba and the United States. A public session will be held this evening to sign the following relations, which have been adopted:

"1. The government of Cuba will not make a treaty or agreement with any foreign power which may compromise or limit the independence of Cuba, or which may permit or authorize any power to obtain, by means of colonization or for military or naval purposes, or in any other manner, any foothold or authority or right over any portion of Cuba.

"2. The government will not permit its territory to be used as a base of operations for war against the United States or against any foreign nation.

"3. The government of Cuba accepts in its entirety the treaty of Paris, in which is affirmed the rights of Cuba to the extent of the obligations which are explicitly indicated in these, and especially those which the international law imposes for the protection of life and property, and substitutes itself for the United States in the place, which they assumed in that sense according to articles 12 and 162 of the treaty of Paris.

"4. Cuba recognizes as legally valid all acts of the military government during the period of occupation, also the rights arising out of the conformity with the joint resolution and the Foraker amendment and the existing laws of the country.

"5. The governments of the United States and Cuba ought to regulate their commercial relations by means of a treaty based on reciprocity and with tendencies towards free trade in natural and manufactured products, mutually assuring ample special advantages in their respective markets."

WHEELING AND LAKE ERIE NOT INTERESTED.

Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling the Probable Party in Wabash's Pittsburg Line.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 27.—President Blickensdorfer, of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad company, said today there was absolutely no truth in the report that a deal had been arranged whereby the Wabash company would gain an entrance into Pittsburg over his company's road. Mr. Blickensdorfer said he had no idea how the story started.

Another prominent local railway official said this afternoon that if there was a plan on foot to extend the Wabash line to Pittsburg the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling line was probably the road likely to be included in the deal.

A LIVELY DEBATE

COUNCIL DISCUSSES TERRE HAUTE LYNCHING.

RESOLUTIONS WERE OFFERED

POINTING MORAL ON METROPOLITAN POLICE.

WERE FINALLY WITHDRAWN

ONE COUNCILMAN APPLAUDS MOB'S WORK.

The city council met in regular session last evening, with barely a quorum present. It is remarkable what a lot of private business councilmen have on meeting nights and how much leisure they have just about election time. As a councilman gets about $6 per meeting night it would be interesting to note how much each one has received from the city for which no service was rendered. There was little important business up for consideration. The report of the committee of the whole, favoring the granting of a franchise to the American District Telegraph company was concurred in after considerable discussion. Councilman Haag was in favor of amending the report so as to make the minimum compensation to $100 instead of $21. The amendment was lost and the original report was concurred in, but the ordinance was not called up. The waterworks trustees sent in a communication announcing that the waterworks department had adopted the air pressure system and were preparing to install a permanent plant. They also declared that after the plant was installed, if one of the engines should break the city would be helpless and be without a water supply in case of fire; they recommended the authorization of the purchase of another engine for No. 2 station. The communication also called attention to the waste of water and cited that the average amount of water used was about ninety gallons per capita per day. The trustees assert that the only way to correct the abuse of the water privileges is by the introduction of the meter system. The event of the evening was the introduction of the following resolution by Councilman Hench:

"Whereas, The Indiana legislature is about to place Fort Wayne under the operation of a metropolitan police law, under the specious pretext of securing a better government and more orderly condition of affairs, and,

"Whereas, It is possible to forecast the future only by present and past occurrences, and

"Whereas, Under the present charter and the present police regulations Fort Wayne has been free from disorder and great crime; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the common council views the diabolical work of a mob at Terre Haute, unhindered as it was by police interference in a city where the metropolitan police force has full sway, as a potent illustration of the results of the incapacity, cowardice and corruption of a police force that is not responsible to the people it is supposed to protect, and,

"Resolved, That the common council of the city of Fort Wayne, the mayor concurring, hereby protest against the forcing upon Fort Wayne of a police system that is fundamentally wrong and certain to entail just such contempt for law as is exemplified by the Terre Haute mob, and,

"Resolved, That while we deplore the savagery of the mob that burned a negro criminal and denounce that act as inhuman and a reversion to barbarism, we yet recognize in it the logical outcome of the principle that seeks to take away self-government from a community, a principle which must bring in its train public abasement, degradation, moral bluntness, mobbery and anarchy, and,

"Resolved, Therefore, that in the interest of public morality and private right, we protest against the attempt to subject the people of Fort Wayne to the effects of such deprivation of home rule; to the effects of a corrupt police supervision—corrupt necessarily because manipulated by persons whose only interests are political aggrandizement and monetary gain, and,

"Resolved, That we respectfully refer Governor Durbin and the members of the legislature to the edifying spectacle at Terre Haute for a salutary lesson in the workings of the metropolitan police system, and beg them, in the interests of common humanity to spare us the infliction of such devilish exhibitions of cruelty and savagery by allowing us to continue to govern ourselves as we have in the past, and maintain Fort Wayne as a home of orderly and law-abiding citizens."

Mr. Hench moved the adoption and Mr. Lennart amended by moving to lay it on the table. Then the ball opened. Mr. Hench defended the resolution by saying that the claim of the Fort Wayne republican politicians made to the legislature in support of a metropolitan police bill for Fort Wayne cited that when Mark Hanna was in this city last fall somebody said "booh!" to him and the police refused to interfere. The same politicians represented that that that night Fort Wayne was in the hands of a mob, which the police refused to molest, and that if there had been a metropolitan police the mob could not have existed— that mobs melt like snow before a metropolitan police and peace sublime in almost oppressive intensity is the perennial condition of all communities blessed with a republican police system; the resolution was to call attention to the fact that Terre Haute, with its gubernatorial constabulary, was a victim of an atrocious mob and no attempt was made to hinder it. Councilman Bauer said he gloried in the work of the mob and if he had been there he would have applied the match himself. Councilman Ehrman said he approved of the work of the Terre Haute avengers and Councilman Haag said he could not vote for the resolution as it stood. Councilman Hosey said the resolution smacked too much of the Limekiln club, and Councilman Clark said there was too much bloody shirt in it. When the roll was called and it was clearly seen that the resolution would be tabled, Councilman Hench withdrew it so that it would not become a matter of record. After the adjournment there was an extra session of the council in the clerk's office and the councilmen were busy explaining why they voted so and so and allowed two republican councilmen to whip them into a practical endorsement of the metropolitan police bill. The councilman from the eleventh ward talked a few paragraphs of plain English. He said: "You are cowards, every one of you! You are whipped and you are afraid to whimper. You are afraid of the police commission; you don't know who that commission will be, but you are afraid of it just the same. Most of you expect or hope to be a member of the board and those of you who don't have a pet policeman whom you want to protect and keep on the force and you are afraid to call your souls your own. That's all there is to it."

COUNCILMANIC ABSENTEES.

The meagre attendance at council meetings has been a source of much worriment to the mayor and has frequently been the occasion of considerable annoyance. On several occasions the council meetings had to be postponed for want of a quorum. The mayor says that those who have too much business of their own to give two nights in a month to their constituents should resign and give way to somebody that would be regular in attendance. Last year there were but twenty-five meetings of the council, including special sessions and all. A glance over the records of attendance kept in the clerk's office will show the following record of absentees: Councilman Bauer missed two meetings; Borkenstein, five; Buhr, nine; Clark, seven; Eckert, two; Earman, six; Gerding, eleven; Haag, eight; Hayes, ten; Hench, one; Hosey, none; Lennart, two; McMahon, seven; Miller, eight; O'Ryan, nine; Scheid, two; Schuhler, three; Schwartz, two; White, two, and Zurbuch, one. It will be seen that four councilmen were absent at nearly half the sessions and only one attended all of them. The number of times councilmen were absent aggregates ninety-eight and as each councilman received an even six dollars for every meeting of the council during the year, it shows an expenditure of $588 for which no value was received. One of the councilmen received sixty-six dollars to which he was not entitled, if councilmanic services are calculated the same as the councilmen reckon the services of their employes. A man engaged in a shop must be present when the roll is called, or the checks are counted if he expects to be credited with his day's work. A man hired by the month can't expect to lay off two weeks and draw a full month's pay. But leaving the question of pay out of the question the voters rightly argue that the man whom they select and pay to represent them should be present at all the meetings of the body when possible and if his business is such as to prevent regular attendance he should resign. There is considerable merit in the argument, too.

DRYING PREPARATIONS simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Wheat ruled weak today under bear pressure and liquidation. Easy cables from Liverpool and sharp decline at Paris were factors. May opened a shade lower at 76½c to 76¼, declined to 75⅝@75¾c and rallied to 76c on covering. The reaction brought most liberal offerings and the market again declined, this time dropping to 75½@75⅝c. Local receipts were 54 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 239 cars against 243 last week and 533 a year ago.

An improvement in the grade of corn receipts helped prices at the start. In today's receipts, 322 cars, there were 15 cars which were equal to contract requirements. May opened ⅛c lower at 40⅞c to 40⅜c, but fell to 40½c under selling by longs and pressure from bears.

May oats opened a shade lower to unchanged at 25⅜@25¾c and sold off to 25⅜@25½c with the decline in corn. Receipts were 165 cars.

Provisions were dull. The market opened easier because of heavy hog receipts, was steady and practically unchanged for some time, there being little pressure to sell. May pork opened 5c lower at $14.02½; May lard unchanged at $7.47½, and May ribs 2½c down at $7.05.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Feb., 74⅝c; March, 74⅝c; May, 76¼c.

Corn—Feb., 38⅞c; March, 39⅛c; May, 40⅜c.

Oats—Feb., 24½c; May, 25½c.

Pork—Feb., $13.95; May, $14.15.

Lard—Feb., $7.45; March, $7.45; May, $7.52½; July, $7.55@7.57½; Sept., $7.62½@7.65.

Ribs—Feb., $7.05; May, $7.05½@7.10; Sept., $7.22½.

Flax—Cash No. 1, $1.61; May, $1.61½.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts, 17,000; steers steady to slow; butchers' stock strong. Good to prime steers, $4.95@6.00; poor to medium, $3.40@4.90; stockers and feeders, $2.65@4.50; cows, $2.65@4.25; heifers, $2.65@4.50; canners, $2.00@2.60; bulls, $2.40@4.15; calves, $4.00@5.60; Texas fed steers, $4.00@4.90; Texas grass steers, $3.35@4.00; Texas bulls, $2.50@3.50.

Hogs—Receipts today, 42,000; tomorrow, 33,000; left over, 6,666; market generally 10c lower; top, $5.55. Mixed and butchers, $5.30@5.55; good to choice heavy, $5.45@5.55; rough heavy, $5.30@5.40; light, $5.30@5.50; bulk of sales, $5.40@5.50.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 27.—Price changes in the Steel stocks at the opening were generally small and divided between gains and losses, but the stocks fluctuated very uncertainly after the opening.

Federal Steel preferred opened wide at 88 to 85½, compared with 87 last night. American Hoop was up a point, American Tin Plate was off a point. National Tube opened up a fraction and then dropped 1¼. The changes in the railroad list were small and mixed. General Electric fell 1¼.

Operations in the Steel stocks were centering on efforts to affect relative values of the constituent companies to that of the new stock issue. Preferred stocks were bought and advanced from 1 to 2 points. Some of the common issues were supported, but others were liquidated, Steel and Wire falling to 40¼ and National Tube losing 2½. The diverse movements unsettled other stocks and declines followed. Brooklyn Transit and Metropolitan Street Railway dipped sharply, and an opening gain of a point in St. Paul was more than wiped out.

Tobacco, after reaching to 120¼, was marked up to 122 and later yielded to near the lowest. All of the common steel stocks were then bid up about a point, which steadied the general market.

At 11 o'clock Sugar, Brooklyn Transit and the Steel stocks were being sold freely and ruling generally at the lowest.

Sugar and Brooklyn Transit suffered losses of 2¾ and 2¼ respectively before support appeared, and Steel and Wire, Tin Plate and Smelting were also especially weak. Large blocks of St. Paul were then bought on a rising scale up to 151½. Many good rallies were made in sympathy. Amalgamated Copper was in good demand and advanced 1¼.

Bonds were firm.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hardisty and Mrs. Crawford were pleasantly surprised at their country home last Saturday evening by a jolly sleigh load of their friends. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Potter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Moninger and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard, of Fort Wayne. Music and social diversions occupied the hours, the guests returning to their homes at a late hour.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

In Bullerman's court this morning Mrs. Christina Dunlap filed two affidavits against Mrs. Alice Dahnen for provoking her two sons, Arthur and Richard Dunlap. These lads were before Justice France last week charged with provoking Mrs. Dahnen and the evidence showed that their conduct was most atrocious. Justice France did not wish to send the little lads to jail, so he discharged them with an admonition. They became ugly again and it appears Mrs. Dahnen retaliated and in consequence is herself in the toils.

The Washington Township Game Protective association has been instrumental in having affidavits filed against Louis White and Drlee White for Sabbath desecration. The offense consisted in hunting on Sunday. The cases will be tried in France's court this afternoon.

TWO COMPANIES MAY CLASH

SOME INDICATIONS OF AN INTERURBAN WAR.

Dieterich Syndicate Has an Eye on Territory Pre-Empted by Southwestern—Murdock's Request.

Within the past day or two there have developed surface indications of a lively fight for the interurban right of way between this city and Lafayette. For the route between this city and Huntington a franchise is already held by the Fort Wayne Southwestern company, which has begun preparations to build its line, and it is now evident that the Dieterich syndicate, which has opened negotiations for the purchase of the Fort Wayne street railway, also desires a right of way through the same territory.

When Mr. Dieterich was in Fort Wayne Saturday he incidentally spoke favorably of a line along the tow path, continuing through to Lafayette and then to the coal fields, though the gentlemen disclaim any intention of fighting any other company. Mr. Dieterich went from this city to Lafayette. Tuesday James E. Murdock, of Lafayette, who is closely connected with the Dieterich interests, appeared before a committee of Huntington citizens and asked them to proceed slowly in the granting of franchises until Mr. Murdock and his associates could frame a petition setting forth their desires definitely. Concerning it the Huntington Herald says:

"Mr. Murdock briefly outlined the enterprise. He stated that the gentlemen interested were abundantly able to finace the scheme and were favorably inclined toward it. They had secured options on the Fort Wayne and Logansport street railways and were assured of an option on the Lafayette electric line. They had secured options on the canal property and within a month (possibly two weeks) would be able to meet the Huntington council and state their desires. They would ask no subsidy or donation. All they would desire would be a franchise through the city of Huntington, and would not expect any unreasonable concessions. The line would be a trunk line, with branches, one of which would be a line to Marion from Huntington, where it would be continued to Muncie and thence to Indianapolis, either over their own road or by connecting lines. 'The only object of my visit,' said Mr. Murdock, 'is to request your council not to bind itself up by any franchise to any company within the time named—two to four weeks. By that time our people will know to a certainty what they intend to do, and we will not keep the matter uncertain long. When we conclude to build the work will be pushed rapidly and the road will be running in a short time. It will be first-class in every respect.'"

Mr. Murdock came to Fort Wayne last evening, held a brief conference with Henry C. Paul and left for Lima, Ohio.

COUNCIL DID NOT ACT.

The Huntington city council met last evening to act upon the proposition to reconsider the franchise recently granted the Fort Wayne and Southwestern company, and J. B. Kenner addressed the council in behalf of Mr. Murdock's request. The meeting adjourned, however, without taking any action to hold up the franchise and this is assumed to mean that the Southwestern's franchise will stand.

To a reporter at Huntington Mr. Murdock said:

"My company has $30,000,000 and it means business. It has been at work for the past three months making surveys in the Wabash valley and the gas belt. Its object is to construct an interurban electric railway system that will connect all the better towns in this part of Indiana. As has been published, our road will run from Fort Wayne to the coal fields. In Logansport, Lafayette and Fort Wayne we have been given assurances that our project will be met with high favor. We want no subsidies. All we ask of any city is fair business treatment in the matter of franchise. We would like to ask this as well as other cities to move cautiously and not tie their streets up so that other concerns cannot get in. We are not making war on the Fort Wayne and Southwestern or any other company—all we want is equitable treatment. We will use the tow path where it can be done conveniently, but will not use it if the company finds other routes more convenient. This matter will be closed up one way or another within thirty days."

TO SUCCEED VANDERLIP.

Washington, Feb. 27. The president today nominated Milton E. Ailes, of Ohio, to be assistant secretary of the treasury, vice Frank Vanderlip, resigned.

Hon. Richard Harcourt, minister of education for Ontario, has announced that he will ask the legislature at the coming session to make a grant to establish traveling libraries throughout the rural sections of the province. Boxes of books containing twenty-five to fifty volumes will be put on the road, the only cost to the locality being that of transportation.

CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH

SCHEPER'S LAAGER IS TAKEN FROM THE BOERS.

Most of Boer Force Absent, But Forty Burghers Were Made Prisoners—Supplies Captured.

Port Isabel, Cape Colony, Feb. 27. A private message received here says Scheper's laager, near Willowmore, has been captured by the British. The main body of Boers was absent, but forty burghers and the whole of the supplies were taken.

LARGE STORES CAPTURED.

London, Feb. 27.—General Kitchener, telegraphing from Middleburg (in the Transvaal on the railroad between Pretoria and Portuguese East Africa), under date of February 27, says:

"The following additional captures are reported by French up to February 25:

"Three hundred Boers, surrendered; a nineteen pounder Krupp, one howitzer, a Maxim, 20,000 rounds of small arms' ammunition, 153 rifles, 386 horses, 834 trek oxen, 5,600 cattle, 9,800 sheep and 287 wagons and carts.

"The Boers' casualties were four killed and five wounded."

PLAGUE IS SPREADING.

Cape Town, Feb. 27.—Seven fresh cases of bubonic plague were reported yesterday. Two of the victims are Europeans, a man and a woman. The dead body of a kaffir was found in a house near the Cathedral yesterday. In a majority of the cases the spread of the disease is traceable to rats.

The principal difficulty encountered by the authorities in their efforts to prevent the plague from spreading is the concealment by the colored people of its existence among them.

In consequence of the gravity of the bubonic plague situation the government has taken over from the corporation control of everything connected therewith and is engaging a large corps for a thorough cleansing of the city, the burning of undesirable houses and the destruction of rubbish.

REOPENS A DISCUSSION.

London, Feb. 27.—The war office selected the double anniversary of the battle of Majuba Hill and General Cronje's surrender to publish General Kelly-Kenny's dispatch to Lord Roberts dealing with the events immediately preceding the surrender at Paardeberg.

The dispatch contains no news, but it threatens to reopen the discussion regarding the responsibility for the attack on the Boer lines at Paardeberg, which proved so costly to the British.

Only last evening, in the house of commons, Mr. Brodrick, the war secretary, said that General Kelly-Kenny was in command. Presumably he was, although his dispatch concludes as follows:

"Lord Kitchener, the chief of staff, was present all the time. In accordance with the instructions conveyed to me in your note of Feb. 17, I recognize his suggestions as conveying to me your lordship's orders, and acted thereon."

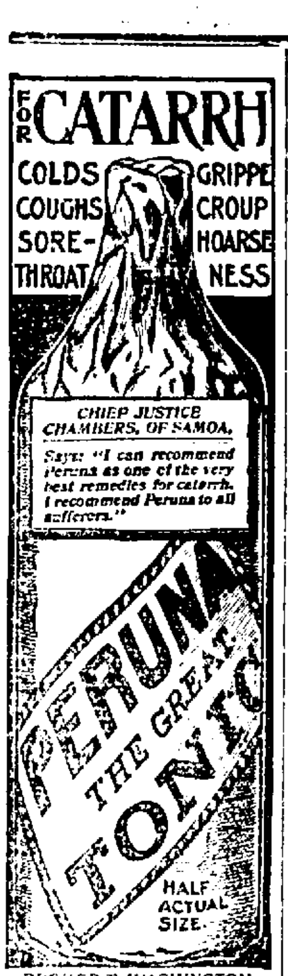

NOTES OF THE DAY.

All cattle over six months old going from Great Britain to the United States must, by an order just issued, be tested with tuberculin by an inspector stationed in Great Britain, or on arrival in the United States. The test will not do away with quarantine.

In consequence of the increasing number of cases of chronic malaria in the neighborhood of Moscow, Professor Zograf made investigation of a most searching character, and he confirms the opinion of the English scientists that the disease is communicated by a certain kind of mosquito.

The number of suicides in Paris is very large at present and the chief cause is thought to be the general retrenchment following the exposition, which has thrown many people out of work. Throughout France, however, suicide seems to have been increasing for some time. In the five years ended January 1, 1901, the number of suicides was no less than 27,000.

Heavy storms have done a vast amount of damage to Coney Island this winter, and it looks as though the geography of the place will be woefully changed. Many buildings along the beach have been moved inland to escape the breakers.

SHOP AND RAIL

J. S. MAY RESIGNS HIS PANHANDLE POSITION.

GOES TO THE ALTON MARCH 1

RAILWAY OFFICIALS HAVE NOT ANNOUNCED SUCCESSOR.

SOME RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

MRS. MAY THAYER KILLED AT DUNKIRK, OHIO.

Supt. J. S. May, of the Richmond division of the Panhandle system, has tendered his resignation, the same to become effective March 1. It is understood that Mr. May has accepted a position with the Chicago and Alton. Mr. May is a fine railway man and his success in that line is due entirely to personal effort, he being without the "push" which is sometimes so effective in boosting incompetent men to places of responsibility in the railway service. Concerning Mr. May the Columbus Dispatch says: "Mr. May has the enviable record of having risen from brakeman to superintendent. He accepted a position with the Panhandle company in 1870 and has been in their employ ever since. From freight brakeman he was promoted to freight conductor and after a few years' service was made passenger conductor, which position he held until 1890, when he was promoted to superintendent of the Richmond division of the Panhandle. When the C. A. & C. was acquired by the Pennsylvania company he was spoken of for the position of general superintendent of that road, but the powers that be ruled that it should be otherwise. At that time the abandonment of the Richmond division was talked of but nothing was done in the matter. When asked as to the future of the division the officials said that there was no truth in the report that the Richmond division was to become a part of the Logansport division or any other division, but that Mr. May's successor had not been announced."

RATES FOR SPECIAL CARS.

The Pullman company has issued a circular giving new rates to private parties for sleeping car service. It is announced that the company will furnish meals, either for private or buffet, sleeping or dining cars, charging only for the cost of supplies, with an additional 20 per cent added to cover handling, condemnation, etc. Private cars may be chartered at $50 per day for fewer than thirty days. The rate for a sleeping car will be $45, and for buffet sleepers $50, a reduction of $5 per day being allowed when used thirty days or over, and when chartered for a period of over ninety days the per diem will be $35. Compartment cars will be $50 per day for fewer than thirty days, and $35 for over ninety days. The charge for a special train, consisting of one compartment, one sleeping, one dining and one observation car, will be $215 per day.

KILLED ON STREET CROSSING.

Westbound fast train No. 21, on the Pittsburg road, struck and killed Mrs. May Thayer upon a street crossing in the town of Dunkirk, Ohio, this morning. The unfortunate lady miscalculated the distance and the speed of the train and attempted to cross the tracks ahead of it, although the usual warning was given.

BIG DEMAND FOR DYNAMOS.

The coming of warmer weather has been accompanied by an increase in orders for dynamos and electric supplies upon the shipping department of the Fort Wayne Electric works. The company is about to commence the installation of a lighting plant at Waynesville, Ohio, and today loaded for shipment to that place a 1,500-light alternating dynamo, a number of arc lights and all the station equipment material. The company also sent a thirty-horse power motor to Hooven, Owen & Rentchler, of Hamilton, Ohio.

LARGEST ORDER FOR ENGINES.

The Baltimore and Ohio company has established a new record in the way of ordering equipment. This week orders for 105 locomotives, which will cost about $1,300,000, were placed by that company. This is in addition to two other orders, one calling for 100 engines and the other for twenty-five, making a total cost of about $2,070,000, which will come out of the $25,000,000 improvement fund established a short time after the reorganizaton of the road. The engines are of all classes. The freight engines will be of the Wooten type, with wide fire boxes on trailing wheels, and the cabs set on top of the boilers. The passenger engines will be of the Atlantic type, built for fast running.

LEAVES SHOP FOR FARM.

J. H. Shuey, who has been firing at the James Trythall furnace in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop for some time, resigned that position today. He has purchased a farm in Wells county, near Ossian, and will immediately move upon it and engage in agriculture the remainder of his life.

MR. RAMSEY DENIES REPORT.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 27.—Joseph Ramsey, jr., vice president and general manager of the Wabash railroad, today denied the report that he had confirmed a statement that the Wabash was to enter Pittsburg.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Boiler Foreman James Murray, of the Wabash, made a business trip to Peru yesterday.

Nickel Plate Conductor G. B. McCormick is off duty on account of sickness in his family.

E. M. Powers, the Kansas City representative of Powers & Barnett, the 'bus company, is in the city.

Boilermaker Fred Rehling, of the Wabash shops, was taken sick this morning and had to return home.

J. C. Walters, traveling freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, was in the city today.

Ed Gephard, who was injured by a fall a few days ago, resumed work in the Wabash boiler shop this morning.

J. Callihan and A. Shannon, who had been sick, resumed their duties in the Pittsburg roundhouse this morning.

Engineer W. Slagle and Firemen D. Baltzell, W. H. Wyman and G. K. Homen, of the Pittsburg, are sick and off duty.

Thomas McGuire, Grand Rapids engineer, is taking a vacation, and Engineer P. Lupton has his place at the throttle.

W. F. Mailand resumed work in the Pittsburg lumber yards this morning. A few days ago he had one of his hands injured.

The Pennsylvania limited was over an hour late in reaching Fort Wayne this morning. The delay was caused east of Crestline.

Claude Moore, a painter at the Pittsburg shops, is on duty again. For two weeks he was confined to his home by the grip.

Two more car loads of steel for the superstructure of the electric building arrived last night, making six car loads so far received.

One of the Nickel Plate's new dining cars is expected here in a few days. It will run on Nos. 2 and 4 between this city and Chicago.

Conductor C. D. Snyder and Brakemen J. H. Kepler and G. Hartwick compose a new freight crew on the third district of the Nickel Plate.

Road Foreman of Engines C. R. Colmey is at his office again, after being confined a few days by the grip. He still suffers from the malady.

P. C. Cunningham, boilermaker at the Wabash shops, has returned from Peru, where he attended the funeral of his brother, Edward Cunningham.

Foreman B. F. Sarver, who has been quite sick for a few weeks, was able to resume charge of affairs at the Pittsburg boiler shop this morning.

The large trip hammer in the Bass blacksmith shop, which was broken some weeks ago, has been repaired and will be put in operation in a day or two.

Capt. R. H. Harrison, ex-foreman of the car machine department of the Pittsburg shops, is reported better today. He has been quite sick for several days.

V. Schroyer, L. O. Starr, J. Richards and F. M. Shambaugh are sick and off duty, and H. E. Overly is off to attend to some private business. They are Pittsburg employes.

J. P. Shoemaker, traveling auditor of the Adams Express company, was here yesterday on business with Local Agent George E. Becker. Mr. Shoemaker resides in Columbus, Ohio.

N. J. Eichhorn, machinist, has returned from Cleveland, where he attended a family reunion which was remarkable in some particulars. There were twenty-six persons surrounding the supper table and all but two bore the name Eichhorn. Mr. Eichhorn resumed his duties in the Wabash shops this morning.

The Wabash earnings for the third week of February amounted to $326,303.17, showing an increase of $22,730.13; from the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, to date, $11,570,454.41; increase, $695,468.71.

Walter Newman, a tinsmith; James Bradbury, boilermaker's helper, and Orian Somers, laborer in the machine shop, quit the employ of the Wabash company this morning. With the exception of Mr. Newman these men were recent additions to the shop force.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Let the mother take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil for the two; it is almost never superfluous.

One can eat for two; but nourishing two is a different thing; it implies a degree of interior strength not often found in woman of either extreme.

Luxurious people are not very strong by habit, and overworked people are weak from exhaustion in some of their functions. Between the two is the happy mean; but how many women have plenty of life for two?

The emulsion is almost never superfluous.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.

WHAT SAMPSON SAYS.

Boston, Feb. 27.—Rear Admiral Sampson, referring to his letter to the navy department, relating to the commissioning of warrant officers, said that he had expressed his views solely in the interest of the service as he had come to know it and appreciate its requirements after a life time of duty aboard ship and ashore. "The letter was an official communication," he said. "As an officer in the navy I am forbidden by the regulations to discuss it in any way for publication."

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free on stomach troubles, by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

OFFICIAL COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne met in the Council Chamber Tuesday evening, February 26, A. D. 1901, in regular session, His Honor, Mayor Scherer, in the chair, and H. B. Monning Clerk, at the desk, and present the following members, 15, viz.:

Bauer, Borkenstein, Clark, Ehrman, Haag, Hayes, Hench, Hosey, Lennart, McMahon, Miller, O'Ryan, Scheid, Schubler and Zurbuch.

Absent, 5, viz.: Councilmen Buhr, Eckart, Gerding, Schwartz and White.

The minutes of the last regular session having been delivered to the councilmen were, on motion, approved as published.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne:

Gentlemen: The two tests made at north side pumping station with compressed air showed, under the first test with five (5) rock wells connected, an average daily pumpage of one million, three hundred and eighty-five thousand, four hundred and eighty-five (1,385,485) gallons, while the second test with ten (10) wells connected, showed an average pumpage of two million, two hundred and twenty-two thousand, two hundred and nine (2,222,209) gallons.

The trustees have decided to have plans and specifications prepared for the installment of a permanent plant of this character, after which proposals will be received for the carrying on of this work. With the installment of this plant we wish to call your attention to the fact, that if either of the pumping engines should become disabled from any cause, the city would be entirely without any protection and with but an insufficient supply of water for domestic purposes. For this reason we wish to urge the necessity of purchasing another pumping engine for station No. 2. This is a very important matter and should be taken up for consideration without further delay.

During the past year the average pumpage was over four million (4,000,000) gallons per day or about ninety (90) gallons per capita, which is entirely too much and proves beyond doubt that there must be a large waste of water, and the best and only way to remedy this is by the adoption of a meter system. If the meter system is adopted, the water rent can be reduced at least one-third, while the consumption of water will be reduced far beyond that, and the revenue from this department increased under the above conditions. We have no hesitancy in saying this system must be adopted if we expect a supply of water from wells for our city.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. TACTMEYER,
WM. KEOUGH,
P. J. SINGLETON.

Referred to committee of the whole.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.
FORT WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 25, 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: We, your committee on finance, respectfully report that we have carefully examined all the books, vouchers, coupons, bonds and receipts in the comptroller's office and compared them with the vouchers in the department of public works, safety, finance and health, and find them to agree with the books and annual reports submitted to this council.

We recommend that the mayor appoint a committee of three members of this council to look after delinquent taxes as recommended by the comptroller in his report.

SMALL BANKS CLOSE.

Ashley, Ill., Feb. 26.—The Centennial bank, a private institution here, of which Edmund Palmer, of Chicago, is president, failed to open for business today. The deposits are said to aggregate $36,000. Cashier Offil, the only official of the bank here, has not made any statement, but it is reported the closing of the bank was due to the closing of a bank at Desplaines in which President Palmer was interested.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The private bank of Palmer & Mayor, at Desplaines, a village twelve miles from Chicago, has closed its doors. The institution is said to have held deposits aggregating $20,000, of which $6,000 was village funds. Experiments with liquid air are said to have caused the trouble.

TROUBLE WITH SIOUX FEARED.

Fort Yates, N. D., Feb. 27.—Reports of unrest among the Sioux Indians, circulated a fortnight since, have been accentuated here by the rumor that several persons have been warned of plans for an outbreak of some sort on July 4, when the Indians gather at the various agencies to participate in games. It is claimed by the Indians that they have been unable to secure a complete and satisfactory statement from the department at Washington of the money due them on sales of lands ceded under the treaty of 1889, and to this fact is said to be due the present feeling of dissatisfaction.

J. K. ROSS HELD UNDER BOND

COMMISSIONER LOGAN'S RULING IN THE BEER CASE.

Holds It a Violation of the Statutes to Sell Beer to Italians — Harry Snow is Not Prompt About Appearing.

United States Commissioner Logan today rendered his decision in the case against Judson K. Ross, who was accused of violation of the internal revenue laws by selling beer to Italian laborers without having paid the special tax. Mr. Logan's decision brings Ross' action within the intent of the law, and Ross was held under bond of $300 to the United States grand jury.

The facts as adduced at the preliminary hearing were that during the summer of 1900 Ross was engaged in business as a retail grocer; that in the rear of his place of business was a dwelling occupied by about twenty-five Italian laborers upon the Intercepting sewer; that Ross purchased from Fred Helling a number of cases of beer which were disposed of to the Italians; that Ross had no barroom, and that he was not authorized by the government to carry on the business of a retail liquor dealer.

J. B. Harper, counsel for the defendant, set up the defense that if such sales were made, the defendant received no profit therefrom; that it was done as a matter of accommodation; that it was not the intention to sell beer to any one who applied for it, but was restricted to the aforesaid Italians, and that the defendant did not intend to violate any law regarding the sale of liquors.

In the finding Commissioner Logan laid down as a rule of law the following: "Where [illegible] from a manufacturer of beer [illegible] wise, with the intention of it, not to every one who may apply for it, but to a particular individual or class of individuals, and afterwards does dispose of it by selling to some particular class, club or organization according to his preconceived intention, without profit to himself in the transaction, influence, perhaps, to sell in the spirit of accommodation, is, nevertheless, under the law a retail dealer in malt liquors and amenable to section 3242, of the Revised Statutes of the United States."

FINAL HEARINGS.

The United States court has fixed March 22 as the date for the final hearings in the bankruptcy actions of David E. Studebaker and Albert A. Nichols, of Decatur, and Frank T. Glaser, of this city.

MR. SNOW IS SLOW.

This was the day set for the hearing of the charge against Harry Snow for selling liquor without the formality of getting a government license. Mr. Snow is the Columbia street saloonist whose woes of various kinds have been pretty thoroughly aired in the courts during the past few weeks. Mr. Snow was arrested a week ago and placed under his personal recognizance in the sum of $300 for appearance before the United States commissioner today for preliminary hearing. The court was in readiness to hear the case, but Deputy Marshal Rose was unable to find his man. It was learned that Snow went to Lima yesterday on business, and stated that he would return today. He had not put in an appearance up to 2 o'clock this afternoon, and unless he turns up by 4 o'clock, the court will probably declare his bond defaulted. And this will mean another variety of trouble for Mr. Snow.

MUMPS IN PERRY TOWNSHIP.

The report came to County Superintendent Young today that there is an epidemic of mumps in Perry township, and that about half the schools in the township have been closed on account of it. A number of the teachers as well as pupils are victims of the disease.

NEW CLERK APPOINTED.

Morton H. Solliday has been appointed clerk at the Fort Wayne postoffice, succeeding Simeon H. Stouder, who has resigned. Mr. Solliday has been a substitute clerk and the new appointment is to be effective March 1st.

NOTED CLERGYMAN DEAD.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 27.—Rev. Robert Alexander, D. D., a widely known Presbyterian clergyman and editor of the Presbyterian, died at his home here today after an illness of five weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Rev. Dr. Alexander was born in Belmont county, O., in 1837.

Dr. E. F. Sites is having drawings prepared for a handsome residence which he will erect on West Wayne street this summer.

Miss Addie Larimore, of Auburn, has returned home after a visit with her sister in this city.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday

Will be your last chance to take advantage of our most liberal offer which has been extended from last week. Remember we place on sale and offer

Our elegant line of double convex; also periscopic convex glasses, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, absolutely free to each any every customer that will mention this advertisement. We furnish and adjust these glasses free of charge. The frames will cost you but a trifle. Our frames range in prices as follows:

Steel Frame, from 25c up. Aluminum Frame, from 75c up.
Nickel Frame, from 35c up. Solid Gold Frame, from $2.50 up.

Each frame or case will have our name stamped thereon as a guarantee that if these glasses need changing at any time within five years we will exchange them free of charge. This is no sensational offer, but we are determined to get this glass readily introduced on the market, also our perfection in fitting the eye. Knowing that the introduction of a single pair is the most valuable advertisement and will certainly lead to the sales of others, is why we make this most liberal offer, and trust that all in need of glasses will avail themselves of this rare opportunity. If SPECIAL CASES lenses have to be ground to correct errors or refraction. We are fully prepared and thoroughly understand the correction for weak eyes, near sight, far sight, old sight, astigmatism, etc. When necessary our lenses are ground accurately and scientifically for any defective vision, and should such be necessary that a glass will have to be ground to order, our prices on this work will be reasonable. Remember we are the only one in Eastern Indiana who make the fitting of glasses a specialty, and are the only ones who handle this glass, which we generally retail from $2.50 to $3.00, according to the size. However, these lenses will cost you only the asking during this special sale. Call and early and kindly mention this inducement to your friends. If possible, call in the forenoon; in the afternoon we are generally busy.
